TANON, 2023-07 A tribute to the independent and bad ass women of snowboarding Featured snowboarders share their personal stories Illustrated with stunning snowboarding mountain imagery His images are a triumph of artistic photography and snowboard camaraderie that showcase all that is great about women s snowboarding something the photographer feels has been left on the margins of the sport for too long Sam Haddad Glorious Sport Heroes Women in Snowboarding is the product of two years work by photographer Jérôme Tanon following some of the most dedicated female snowboarders around the world. It is a declaration of love highlighting the culture, passion and dedication of female snowboarders. Though women's snowboarding has developed radically over the last decade, few photographs celebrate the champions of the sport. Over two winter seasons, Tanon traveled the world to meet several snowboarders, hear their stories and photograph them in the streets, the parks and the back country. The sheer passion they put into their sport was instantly obvious. Shared here are personal stories and artworks by the snowboarders themselves.
