The Changing Shape of Politics Jonathan Wheatley, 2018-12-17 This book investigates whether politics in Britain in the twenty first century is driven more by issues of culture and identity than by left versus right issues of wealth distribution Drawing from a number of opinion surveys it explores the shifting positions of voters on both economic matters and matters of culture and identity It finds that between 2015 and 2017 support for Britain s main political parties became much more predicated on issues of culture and identity reflecting a radical change in how parties attract voters In the longer term it suggests that issues of culture and identity have become more salient overall possibly because of the oft cited divide between winners and losers of globalisation The book ends by speculating on why politics has become more polarised on these issues rather than on the economic fallout of globalisation and suggests that an explanation is to be found in changing forms of political communication between voters and politicians convenes an urgent conversation on digital media and the social life of contemporary poetry Tracing how poems circulate through online spaces and how capitalized platforms have come to pattern the reading and writing of poetry contributors emphasize both the expressivist cast of digital literary culture and the deep running ambivalence that characterizes aesthetic and critical responses to platformed cultural production The volume features chapters on Pan African spoken word programs Singaporean Facebook groups decolonial hemispheric networks and Japanese media critical poetries as well as platforms such as Twitter X Instagram and Amazon Though contributors write from a variety of methodological positions and address themselves to a range of archives they share the primary conviction that the impact of Web 2 0 on literary practice is far reaching far from self evident and far more variegated and unpredictable than easy summations of social media s influence suggest Expressive Networks asks after poetry s present and future by examining what poems themselves express about the social make up of networked platforms Edited by Matthew Kilbane with contributions from Cameron Awkward Rich Micah Bateman Andrew Campana Sumita Chakraborty Scott Challener C R Grimmer Tess McNulty Michael Nardone Seth Perlow Anna Preus Susanna Sacks Carly Schnitzler Melanie Walsh and Samuel Caleb Wee

Expressive Networks Matthew Kilbane, 2025-06-10 Expressive Networks
