Between State and Market Kahanoff Foundation. Non-Profit Sector Research Initiative, 2001 Between State and Market surveys and critiques the existing literature on charities law as well as the laws themselves The authors offer policy prescriptions for the future of an increasingly vital sector of Canadian society The first section of the book contains an overview of the charitable sector in Canada a sociological review of altruism in different societies a discussion of altruism in various philosophical and religious traditions an economic analysis of rational voluntarism and an assessment of the relationship between the charitable sector and the welfare state The second section contains five papers on the legal definition of charity both general the jurisprudence of the Federal Court of Appeal and a proposal for rethinking the concept of public benefit and particular the political purposes doctrine religion as charity and a commentary on the recent major Supreme Court decision on the meaning of charity The third section deals with the tax status of charities two papers evaluate the current tax credit system and one deals with the administration of charities by the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency The final section contains essays on charities and commercial enterprise on the regulation of fund raising and on needed reforms in non profit corporation law At a time when the federal government is about to embark on a wide range of policy initiatives to assist and regulate the non profit sector these essays are necessary reading for anyone concerned with the future of the charitable sector in Canada Contributors include Neil Brooks Osgoode Hall Law School Cara Cameron McGill Bruce Chapman Kevin Davis Toronto Abraham Drassinower Toronto David Duff Toronto Richard Janda McGill Will Kymlicka Queen s Andr e Lajoie Montreal Mayo Moran Toronto Charles Maxime Panaccio office of Mr Justice Charles Gonthier Jim Phillips Jane Allyn Piliavin Wisconsin Madison David Sharpe Attorney General s Office New York State Lorne Sossin Osgoode Hall Law School David Stevens and Jen Chieh Ting Academia Sinica Jim Phillips is professor of law at the University of Toronto Bruce Chapman is professor of law at the University of Toronto David Stevens is professor of law at McGill University

Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century, Fourth Edition Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2021-03-03 Confederation may have established Canada s nationhood in 1867 but the relationships framing Canada s modern existence go back much further Employing a unique socio historical perspective Canadian Society in the Twenty First Century examines three formative relationships that have shaped the country Canada and Quebec Canada and the United States and Canada and Indigenous nations Now in its fourth edition this engaging text offers students an overview of Canadian society through a series of connections rather than a collection of statistics Trevor W Harrison and John W Friesen weave together complex aspects of the nation s economic political and socio cultural development They guide readers to use this interdisciplinary framework to consider some of the tough questions that Canada is likely to face in adjusting to demands and challenges in the next few decades Reflecting the most current scholarship in the field this revised edition features new discussions on issues such as the current crisis of neo liberal globalization Canada s petroleum industry global warming the Wet suwet en dispute in 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic Exploring the unique character of Canada today this text is a vibrant resource for sociology courses on Canadian society as well as courses in Canadian studies and Canadian history Canadian Society Daniel Glenday,Ann Duffy,2001 This book is intended for core text for courses on Canadian society found in Sociology and Canadian Studies departments Social Welfare ,1920 Manufacturing 'Bad Mothers' Karen Swift,1995-04-27 Child neglect has been characterized over the past century as a problem of deficient care of children by mothers A complex and punitive child welfare system has emerged based on a view that the children of these mothers require legally sanctioned rescue by those better suited to care for them Karen Swift challenges both the accepted view of child neglect and the present official response to it Beginning from a critical theoretical perspective she argues that our usual perceptions of neglect hide and distort important social realities This distorted perception only serves to reproduce the conditions of poverty marginalization and violence in which these families live The current child welfare system far from rescuing neglected children helps instead to ensure the continuation of their problems and the outcome is especially dramatic and damaging in Aboriginal communities Swift explores the historical organizational and professional dimensions within which child neglect becomes a visible social reality Also examined are relations of class race and gender embedded in our usual understanding of child neglect The discussion shows how these relations are continually reproduced through ordinary everyday work practices of social workers and others who deal with mothers accused of child neglect The good parent model through which help and authority are apparently merged continually indicates that the mothers are unworthy of help Their own experience disappears as they are faced with procedures designed to examine their present suitability for the job of parenting The same procedures produce children as actually being helped through the exertion of state authority over their parents but most of the help provided children is theoretical and some of it is quite damaging Swift also looks at both current and alternative notions of helping families Finally she argues that each of us can help to transform oppressive social realities Political And Economic Determinants of Population Health and Well-Being: Vincente Navarro,Carles Muntaner,2020-11-26 The field of social inequalities in health continues its vigorous growth in the early years of the 21st century This volume following in the footsteps of Vicente Navarro s edited collection The Political Economy of Social Inequalities is a compilation of recent contributions to the areas of social epidemiology health disparities health economics and health services research The overarching theme is to describe and explain the evergrowing health inequalities across social class race and gender as well as neighborhood city region country and continent The approach of this book is distinctly multi trans and interdisciplinary the fields of public health population health epidemiology economics sociology political science philosophy medicine and history are all represented here India and Canada: Past, Present & Future Anil Dutta Mishra,Govind Prasad,2003 This Book Is An Outcome Of The Collective Endeavour Of The Scholars Of Indian Association For Canadian Studies It Contains Articles On Socio Economic And Political Aspects Concerning These Two

Countries In The Era Of Liberalization Public Budgeting in Canada G. Bruce Doern,1988-06-15 French Canadian Society Marcel Rioux,Yves Martin,1964-01-01 Health and Canadian Society David Coburn,Carl D'Arcy,George Murray Torrance,1998-01-01 Health and Canadian Society provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between health care and Canadian society It is a wide ranging volume that moves from personal and micro concerns to a more macro and institutional focus It includes chapters of a descriptive nature and others with a more explanatory intent They have been selected from the major journals or have been expressly written for this book Ninety five percent of the contributions are new to this edition The chapters and the studies reported on are methodologically diverse ranging from ethnographic studies to statistical analyses of data from large national surveys Though the chapters are written by anthropologists economists historians political scientists and physicians as well as sociologists they all have a sociological turn Recognized as the standard textbook on the sociology of health in Canada Health and Canadian Society is an essential reference for sociologists health care providers health administrators and policy planners Canadian Family Policies Maureen Baker,1995-01-01 With poverty unemployment and one parent families on the rise in most Western democracies government assistance presents an increasingly urgent and complex problem This is the first study to explore Canada s family policies in an international context Maureen Baker looks at the successes and failures of social programs in other countries in search of solutions that might work in Canada Baker has chosen seven industrialized countries for her comparative study Australia France Germany The Netherlands Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States These countries experience social and economic strains similar to those felt in Canada and though they share certain policy solutions major differences in policy remain Baker considers which of the policies in these countries are most effective in reducing poverty enhancing family life and improving the status of women then applies her findings to the Canadian situation Bringing together research and statistics from the fields of demography political science economics sociology women s studies and social policy this rich multidisciplinary study provides a unique resource for anyone interested in Canadian family policy How Ottawa Spends G. Bruce Doern,1983 In How Ottawa Spends some of the country s top political analysts get inside the byzantine world of federal decision making shedding light on the real priorities of the political parties Among their findings federal spending cuts do not necessarily stick because affected ministers are often given an offsetting package of funds for different purposes while Ottawa has become the country s biggest advertiser close to 60 million in 1982 83 it has increasing trouble discerning between information and propaganda because they are afraid of losing their regional blocs of support none of the federal parties is willing to behave like a truly national party Published in 1983 How Ottawa Spends is an eye opening look at federal spending priorities Racism and Anti-Racism in Canada David Este,2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Multiculturalism is regarded as a key feature of Canada s national identity Yet despite an increasingly diverse population racialized Canadians are systematically excluded from full participation in society through personal and structural forms of racism and discrimination

Race and Anti Racism in Canada provides readers with a critical examination of how racism permeates Canadian society and articulates the complex ways to bring about equity and inclusion both individual and systemically A Question of Commitment Thomas Waldock, 2020-04-09 With the adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989 commentators began to situate the evolution of the status of children within the context of the property to persons trajectory that other human rights stories had followed In the first edition of A Question of Commitment editors R Brian Howe and Katherine Covell provided a template of analysis for understanding this evolution They identified three overlapping stages of development as children transitioned from being regarded as objects to subjects in their own right social laissez faire paternalistic protection and children s rights In the social laissez faire stage children are regarded as objects and largely as the property of parents In the paternalistic protection stage children are seen as vulnerable and in need of protection The children s rights stage lays emphasis on children as rights bearers as individuals in their own right with entitlements In this second edition new essays assess the extent to which children s rights have been incorporated into their respective areas of policy and law The authors draw conclusions about what the situation reveals about the status of children in Canada Overall many challenges remain on the pathway to full recognition and citizenship
