Problem

Pakistan as a nation is a developing country and consequently she faces a wide array of social problems: educational, economical, political, religious and a number of internal ethnic conflicts. However I believe that it is more important to address small issues first and then work towards the annihilation of the larger ones. After all small steps lead to big changes and transformations. The most beautiful moment in the life of humans is when someone of their own blood calls them 'mama' or 'papa'.

Parents want to provide the newborn with the best of everything. He is pampered, protected and taken care of. The blissful period of childhood soon gets over, and the little human infant grows up to be an adult ready to face the challenges of the world he was born in. He sees around him with a hope of finding the same perfection in everything which his parents had provided him with. In no time, he realizes that the Utopian concept of a perfect world should be confined to the fictional island created by Thomas More in his widely renowned novel only. That Utopia was far from reality and had nothing to do with the world around us. It's a world abound with countless problems- social, economic, legal, political, spiritual and the list goes on.

Certain social and economic conditions become a menace for the society when they start asserting negative influence on the society. Usually those social needs which persist in a society for long period of time without being fulfilled owing to restrained budgetary scenarios, they turn into socio-economic problems. The major problems of a society are linked with the providence of basic necessities of life to the people making up the society. If the basic needs of man- shelter, food and clothing are not fulfilled, the deprivation of these needs gradually transform into different forms of social menaces. In the context of Pakistan, owing to the fact that it is a developing nation, there is no wonder that it is engulfed with a number of social and economical problems. The real issue is not the presence of these problems in society because, as stated earlier, there is no concept of a

Super Inequality: Theoretical Essays in Economics and Social Policy
 Christian Aspalter, 2023-09-16 This book bridges the disciplines of micro economics and social policy in general and in particular behavioral explanatory social policy and public choice theory plus Leibenstein s X efficiency theory Being trained as an economist and social policy scientist the author leaps out of the comfort zone of most social policy scientists and experts right into the exciting world of micro economic theory and then extending and connecting those theories to explain major social political and economic conundrums of our time In doing so the book offers a new set of theoretical and practical explanations derived from the general proposition of micro economic theory of how government officers policymakers administrators and the people themselves alike are by and large motivated in their daily as well as strategic long term decision making Using a meta analytical approach based on a number of grand theories this book also explains systemic factors behind human behavior and the thereof resulting shortcomings in lifetime outcomes health wealth and happiness of a person and at the same time societal policy making and economic outcomes on societal level and in global comparison The outcomes thereof can be measured exactly and hence validated especially through the method of empirical comparative social science economic research Here the author also but not only introduces the new method of using Aspalter s Standardized Relative Performance SRP Index in measuring exactly complex aggregate performances of multiple governments and that at the same time also across the entire world
