Sociology 101 Final:

End of Millennium Manuel Castells, 2010-03-29 END OF MILLENNIUM This final volume in Manuel Castells trilogy studies the key defining processes taking place in the last decade of the twentieth century as an expression of the crises resulting from the transition between the old industrial society and the emerging global network society Every now and then one reads a book of social science that is uplifting and mind expanding These books are ambitious and lustrous teaching us much about our world Such is this work from the brilliant sociologist Manuel Castells There is no other sociological work today that brings together in one panoramic expanse so many of the changes now occurring This is a story not simply of global economic change but of cultural upheavals It is a tale not simply of the decline of sovereign states but of the emergence of the new bases of power And it is a narrative not merely about computer technology or the media but of the very terms in which those agents work Anthony M Orum Contemporary Sociology A magnum opus if ever there was one In my view the finest piece of contemporary social analysis for at least a generation Frank Webster British Journal of Sociology A truly stunning achievement A scholar who with remarkable mastery has brought his experience over a lifetime to bear on astonishingly diversified data set pulling them together into a compelling account of the complex relationship between the progressive and the reactionary the globalizing and particularizing forces that are transforming our perplexing world Benjamin Barber The Los Angeles Times Sunday Book Reviews Business Administration and Social Service ,1909

Winning the Race John McWhorter,2006-12-28 In his first major book on the state of black America since the New York Times bestseller Losing the Race John McWhorter argues that a renewed commitment to achievement and integration is the only cure for the crisis in the African American community Winning the Race examines the roots of the serious problems facing black Americans today poverty drugs and high incarceration rates and contends that none of the commonly accepted reasons can explain the decline of black communities since the end of segregation in the 1960s Instead McWhorter posits that a sense of victimhood and alienation that came to the fore during the civil rights era has persisted to the present day in black culture even though most blacks today have never experienced the racism of the segregation era McWhorter traces the effects of this disempowering conception of black identity from the validation of living permanently on welfare to gansta rap s glorification of irresponsibility and violence as a means of protest He discusses particularly specious claims of racism attacks the destructive posturing of black leaders and the hip hop academics and laments that a successful black person must be faced with charges of acting white While acknowledging that racism still exists in America today McWhorter argues that both blacks and whites must move past blaming racism for every challenge blacks face and outlines the steps necessary for improving the future of black America Graduate School Ohio State University. Graduate School,1908 Correspondence Courses Offered by Colleges and Universities Through the United States Armed Forces Institute United States Armed Forces Institute,1951 Social Transformations in Chinese Societies Yanjie Bian,Kwok-bun Chan,Tak-sing Cheung,2006-06-01 Social Transformations in Chinese Societies is the official annual of The Hong Kong Sociological Association It publishes articles of original research that addresses theoretical methodological or substantive issues of sociological significance about or related to social transformations in Chinese societies The focus is mainly on Hong Kong Taiwan the mainland Singapore and Chinese overseas Review essays of exceptionally high quality are also welcome Education and Reform in China Emily Hannum,Albert Park,2012-11-12 Transformative market reforms in China since the late 1970s have improved living standards dramatically but have also led to unprecedented economic inequality During this period China s educational system was restructured to support economic development with educational reforms occurring at a startling pace Today the educational system has diversified in structure finance and content it has become more market oriented and it is serving an increasingly diverse student population These changes carry significant consequences for China s social mobility and inequality and future economic prospects In Education and Reform in China leading scholars in the fields of education sociology demography and economics investigate the evolution of educational access and attainment educational quality and the economic consequences of being educated Education and Reform in China shows that economic advancement is increasingly tied to education in China even as educational services are increasingly marketized The volume investigates the varying impact of change for different social ethnic economic and geographic groups Offering interdisciplinary views on the changing role of education in Chinese society and on China s educational achievements and policy challenges this book will be an important resource for those interested in education public policy and development issues in China Living the End of Antiquity Sabine R. Huebner,Eugenio Garosi,Isabelle Marthot-Santaniello,Matthias Müller,Stefanie Schmidt,Matthias Stern,2020-05-05 This volume covers the transition period stretching from the reign of Justinian I to the end of the 8th century focusing on the experience of individuals who lived through the last decades of Byzantine rule in Egypt before the arrival of the new Arab rulers The contributions drawing from the wealth of sources we have for Egypt explore phenomena of stability and disruption during the transition from the classical to the postclassical world
