Straightforward Statistics Chieh-Chen Bowen,2015-09-16 Straightforward Statistics by Chieh Chen Bowen is written in plain language and connects material in a clear logical manner to help students across the social and behavioral sciences develop a big picture understanding of foundational statistics Each new chapter is purposefully connected with the previous chapter for a gradual accrual of knowledge from simple to more complex concepts this effective cumulative approach to statistics through logical transitions eases students into statistics and prepares them for success in more advanced quantitative coursework and their own research

A Teacher Between Worlds Lillian Cui Garcia,2019-09-03 This is a collection of essays I've written through the years reflecting on my teaching journey in a northern Canadian community college They are interwoven with memories about my earlier Alberta government researcher's job and my first teaching experience in Cebu Philippines Also intertwined with them are remembrances of my family friends colleagues and benefactors It is a social history memoir that touches on a number of contemporary Canadian Native Peoples and Philippine history It's an invitation for teachers and newcomers in a place to reflect on their own comparable journeys while walking with me through my experiences integrating my minority status as a woman of colour in the academic world and the Canadian cultural mosaic where I sought and found acceptance respect and even affection My observations about teaching family friendship the arts health concerns majority and minority relations and transformation resonate with the abiding belief of social scientists in humankind's oneness in mind and spirit They are timely reminders that in an increasingly fractious world we are better off engaging with each other grounding ourselves in honesty civility and compassion as we share space and help navigate this magnificent boat called Earth

My Brother Tom James J. Ware,James J. Ware Jr,2008-04 This biography of Thomas E Ware covers 78 years of relentless struggle for achievement and success in a segregated society on the streets of Washington D C Starting in 1929 and ending in 2007 As his younger brother I was blessed to grow up with him and watch him skillfully work his way through numerous Jim Crow policies educational barriers adversity and police intimidation Excerpts from passages in the book Chap 5 During the 1930's 1201 was a land mark stop over point for family members migrating from the south At one point I counted five families with twenty three people living in our four bedroom home I slept in the bathroom tub While others slept on floor pallets Chap 3 The highlight of our corner experience was the appearance of the local police As they got closer to our group some one would yell police and we would scatter and hide After passing us some one would yell all clear and we would return One day Tom said we have not done anything wrong why should we run every time we see a policeman I'm not going to run anymore Nervously I sat with him Chap 1 When we were little guys I remember Tom telling me There is no Santa Claus This is all a game but I want my toys on Christmas Day I said yes there is a Santa Claus look at all the toys he brought us last year Tom said alright tell me how a group of reindeer can fly through the air with no engine power or wings And how can Santa bring toys to all the kids on our block in his small sled and how can a big fat Santa slide down our small chimney We decided to wait up for Santa on Christmas Eve Finally we say our parents placing toys under the tree for us We knew then that our parents were Santa Claus We still rejoiced on Christmas morning I am pleased that my survival in life is attributed to the life goals that he set for himself but I followed His inner strength tenacity and visionary leadership were helpful to many people whose lives he touched He was a courageous remarkable man James J Ware Jr A Symphony of Life Simin Redjali,2013 A Symphony of Life Triumph of Education over Adversity A Journey of a Persian American Woman Through War Revolution Love and Freedom The story of Dr Redjali a well known public figure in Iran in the mid twentieth century begins in Iran Persia during the time of Iran s westernization and modernization spearheaded by Reza Shah Pahlavi at the beginning of the 20th century and follows the social historical political turmoil and educational events of the past seventy years in Iran in Europe and the United States Like a symphony this book is composed of four movements Through these movements the author weaves the notes of her life into melodies of social and historical changes upheavals wars revolutions and peace She traces her own transition from being part of Iran s ruling class to her job seeking struggles in the United States This provides the reader through the author s firsthand experience with many of the great events of the 20th century a personal account of Iran s contemporary history and politics education along with an eye witness account of the United States civil rights movement the women s rights struggle other important issues related to psychology and mental health and personal issues such as surviving cancer in the United States Her story encompasses shifts in the tempos and melodies of life along with a leitmotiv of love of family individual freedom and unwavering hope for humanity The book illustrates the personal approach the author has adopted throughout her life in coping with and overcoming every adversity through using the power of education It s also a testament to a woman s ability to balance all the facets of her life career demands family responsibilities emotional needs and the quest to help others This book with historical pictures uniquely covers the period between the rise and the fall of the Pahlavi dynasty the rise of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the author s personal life in Europe and the United States It is supported by extensive research and expresses a great hope that the longstanding cultural misunderstanding and miscommunication between Iran and the West will soon be replaced with a mutual respect which celebrates the power of individual freedom and democracy
