Sol Plaatje Application Form For 2015

Janet Remmington, Brian
Willan, Bhekizizwe Peterson

Sol Plaatje Application Form For 2015:

Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokahe, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works. Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance. It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written. Remington, Brian Willan, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-10-01 Sheds new light on Native Life appearing at a critical historical juncture and reflects on how to read it in South Africa's heightened challenges today. First published in 1916 Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa was written by one of the South Africa's most talented early twentieth century black leaders and journalists. Plaatje's pioneering book arose out of an early African National Congress campaign to protest against the discriminatory 1913 Natives Land Act. Native Life vividly narrates Plaatje's investigative journeying into South Africa's rural heartlands to report on the effects of the Act and his involvement in the deputation to the British imperial government. At the same time it tells the bigger story of the assault on black rights and opportunities in the newly consolidated Union of South Africa and the resistance to it. Originally published in war time London but about South Africa and its place in the world Native Life travelled far and wide being distributed in the United States under the auspices of prominent African American W E B Du Bois. South African editions were to follow only in the late apartheid period and beyond. The aim of this multi authored volume is to shed new light on how and why Native Life came into being at a critical historical juncture and to reflect on how it can be read in relation to South Africa's heightened challenges today. Crucial areas that come under the spotlight in this collection include land race history mobility belonging war the press law literature language gender politics and the state.

Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-16 This book offers a holistic guide as to how South African identity and culture can be understood in the past present and future Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Cultural Studies documents the mutual histories of the country and the journal over the past quarter century Divided into six sections the first section addresses cultural figures including Oprah Winfrey Trevor

Noah Olive Schreiner and Dimitri Tsafendas an unusual group that illustrates the unique and international character of South African culture The second part brings attention to the important role that photography has had in depicting and narrating South African cultural life whether through the intimacies found in recent images by Zanele Muholi or the historical work of David Goldblatt and Santu Mofokeng The third section of the book looks at music as another idiom that has proven indispensable for South African social life with Miriam Makeba Rodriguez and Die Antwoord providing examples The fourth and fifth sections of this book address sexuality and film respectively underscoring at once the contrasting approaches to popular culture that have surfaced in South Africa as well as their requisite abilities for grasping everyday tastes and mores The worlds of Ms magazine District 9 Black Panther and Spike Lee to pick only several topics raised supply ways of thinking across these chapters The final section of the volume concludes with the role of place in the construction of culture whether museums national monuments the Spur restaurant franchise or landscapes like the Karoo This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and critics as well as readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's cultural history over the past century

Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Mpya, Nwacoye Gladness, Sadiki, Marubini Christinah, 2024-02-16 In the vast expanse of education a pervasive issue remains in the marginalization and lack of visibility of individuals with disabilities Despite a strong desire for inclusivity recent research suggests that fewer than 5% of children with disabilities in 51 countries across sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia are enrolled in primary school This exclusion is not solely in enrollment numbers even those who manage to attend face learning environments ill equipped to adapt to their needs leading to further isolation Girls with disabilities in particular endure heightened vulnerability to abuse reflecting a systemic failure to provide an environment that fosters equality dignity and respect for all The Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education emerges as an inspiration for change providing a profound solution to the persistent issue of exclusion The book encapsulates a collective effort to reimagine education It advocates for a paradigm shift moving away from the confinement of special schools and towards inclusive mainstream settings By addressing controversies sharing successes and outlining prospects the book serves as a comprehensive guide for special school governing bodies curriculum advisors university lecturers and all stakeholders committed to reshaping education

The Suburbs Marie Bouchet, Nathalie Cochoy, Isabelle Keller-Privat, Mathilde Rogez, 2022-02-01 While suburbs provide a rich field of research for sociologists architects urbanists and anthropologists they have not been given much attention in literary and cultural studies The Suburbs New Literary Perspectives sets out to enrich the limited existing body of critical analysis on the subject with a landmark collection of essays offering a far larger perspective than the books or collections published so far on the topic This interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach includes literary and art studies philosophy and cultural comment It examines the suburbs across cultural differences contrasting British South African and North American suburbs The specificity of this book therefore lies in a cross national and cross continental exploration of these unchartered territories The suburbs are redefined as those rebellious margins whose geographical borders are necessarily fuzzy and sketch out a common place where cultural frontiers can be transcended They are to use Sarah Nuttall s terminology places of entanglement where contraries meet and where new ways of being in the world is reborn Seen through the prism of art and literature the suburbs may then be recognized as philosopher Bruce B gout argues as a new way of thinking and making urban space
