Pyle,John Arch White,Kermit D. Larson,1978 Predication in Caribbean English Creoles Donald Winford,1993-01-21 This is the first major study of the conservative or basilectal English creoles of the Anglophone Caribbean since Bailey's 1966 and Bickerton's 1975 descriptions of Jamaican and Guyanese Creole respectively The book offers a comprehensive unified treatment of the core areas of CEC predication including the verb complex auxiliary ordering voice and valency copular and attributive predication serial verb constructions and complementation Particularly noteworthy is its utilization of an extremely rich data base and a variety of sources to provide an up to date state of the art account of predicate structures in CEC The book presents new analyses of several areas of CEC syntax including such phenomena as passivization serialization and complementation which have not been thoroughly analyzed if at all in the previous literature The areas covered in the book involve a wide range of grammatical phenomena centering around the various sub classes of verb and their subcategorization The book consists of an introduction a conclusion and six chapters each of which explores some aspect of the behavior of verbs or verb like predicators and the constructions in which they occur The book is intended to be a pre theoretical account of the facts of CEC predication However to further elucidate the workings of the grammar and add some degree of explicitness to the description the author also presents more formal analyses of the grammatical phenomena employing the framework of Generalized Phrase Structure Grammar GPSG
