Seriously Investigating Crashes And Crises As If Women Mattered:

Seriously! Cynthia Enloe, 2013-09-16 In Seriously Cynthia Enloe author of the groundbreaking analysis of globalization Bananas Beaches and Bases addresses two deeply gendered and contested questions Who is taken seriously And who gets to bestow the label serious on others With a strategy of taking both women and gender dynamics seriously Cynthia Enloe investigates the Dominique Strauss Kahn affair and the banking crash of 2008 the subsequent recession as well as UN peacekeeping and the ongoing Egyptian revolution Each case study highlights the gritty experiences of women in diverse circumstances in banks on the job market in war zones and in revolutions The results of taking women seriously are fresh insights into what fuels the cultures of hyper risk taking of sexual harassment and the denial of women's post war security

Political Participation in the Digital Age Julia Tiemann-Kollipost, 2020-03-03 This book explores the potential of the Internet for enabling new and flexible political participation modes It meticulously illustrates how the Internet is responsible for citizens participation practices from being general high threshold temporally constricted and dependent on physical presence to being topic centered low threshold temporally discontinuous and independent from physical presence With its ethnographic focus on Icelandic and German online participation tools Betri Reykjavík and LiquidFriesland the book offers plentiful advice for citizens programmers politicians and administrations alike on how to get the most out of online participation formats

The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2025-01-21 The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Gender Coups and Diplomats argues the 2017 coup that ousted long time Zimbabwean president Robert Gabriel Mugabe and the generality of coups cannot be accurately and rigorously understood without examining the crucial role of gender and women's politics in military seizures of power Tendi's book shows that gender and women's politics pervade military coup causes dynamics justifications and international responses to coups Contrary to influential representations of Zimbabwe's 2017 coup and other recent coups as markedly different from past coups Tendi draws on long gendered histories of military coups in Africa to argue that there are significant continuities in coup characteristics across time Additionally Tendi's highly original study of Zimbabwe's 2017 coup identifies the motives dynamics and trigger of the coup Despite the existence of an international anti coup norm and democracy promotion in Africa by Western states Zimbabwean coup makers direct intervention in politics was largely not publicly condemned or penalized by Western and African diplomats Tendi uses original interviews with diplomats and politicians involved in external responses to the coup to address this important puzzle

The Big Push

Cynthia Enloe, 2017-10-26 For over a century and in scores of countries patriarchal presumptions and practices have been challenged by women and their male allies Sexual harassment has entered common parlance police departments are equipped with rape kits more than half of the national legislators in Bolivia and Rwanda are women and a woman candidate won the plurality of the popular votes in the 2016 United States presidential election But have we really reached equality and overthrown a patriarchal point of view The Big Push exposes how patriarchal ideas and relationships continue to be modernized to this day Through contemporary cases and reports renowned political scientist Cynthia Enloe exposes the workings of everyday patriarchy in how Syrian women civil society activists have been excluded from international peace negotiations how sexual harassment became institutionally accepted within major news organizations or in how the UN Secretary General's post has remained a masculine domain Enloe then lays out strategies and skills for challenging patriarchal attitudes and operations Encouraging self reflection she guides us in the discomforting curiosity of reviewing our own personal complicity in sustaining patriarchy in order to withdraw our own support for it Timely and globally conscious The Big Push is a call for feminist self reflection and strategic action with a belief that exposure complements resistance

Histories of Violence Brad Evans, Terrell Carver, 2017-01-15 While there is a tacit appreciation that freedom from violence will lead to more prosperous relations among peoples violence continues to be deployed for various political and social ends Yet the problem of violence still defies neat description subject to many competing interpretations Histories of Violence offers an accessible yet compelling examination of the problem of violence as it appears in the corpus of canonical figures from Hannah Arendt to Frantz Fanon Michel Foucault to Slavoj Žižek who continue to influence and inform contemporary political philosophical sociological cultural and anthropological study Written by a team of internationally renowned experts this is an essential interrogation of post war critical thought as it relates to violence Routledge Handbook of

Despite the severity of the global economic crisis and the widespread aversion towards austerity policies neoliberalism remains the dominant mode of economic governance in the world What makes neoliberalism such a resilient mode of economic and political governance How does neoliberalism effectively reproduce itself in the face of popular opposition States of Discipline offers an answer to these questions by highlighting the ways in which today's neoliberalism reinforces and relies upon coercive practices that marginalize discipline and control social groups Such practices range from the development of market oriented policies through legal and administrative reforms at the local and national level to the coercive apparatuses of the state that repress the social forces that oppose various aspects of neoliberalization The book argues that these practices are built on the pre-existing infrastructure of neoliberal governance which strive towards limiting the spaces of popular resistance through a set of administrative legal and coercive mechanisms Exploring a range of case studies from across the world the book uses authoritarian neoliberalism as a conceptual prism to shed light on the institutionalization and employment of state practices that invalidate public input and silence popular resistance The Limitations of Social Media Feminism Jessica Megarry, 2020-11-27

MeToo Digital networking Facebook groups Social media continues to be positioned by social movement scholars as an exciting new tool that has propelled feminism into a dynamic fourth wave of the movement But how does male power play out on social media and what is the political significance of women using male controlled and algorithmically curated platforms for feminism To answer these questions Megarry foregrounds an analysis of the practices and ethics of the historical Women's Liberation Movement WLM including the revolutionary characteristics of face to face organising and the development of an autonomous print culture Centering discussions of time space and surveillance she utilises radical and lesbian feminist theory to expose the contradictions between the political project of women's liberation and the dominant celebratory narratives of Web 2.0 This is the first book to seriously consider how social media perpetuates the enduring logic of patriarchy and how digital activism shapes women's oppression in the 21st century Drawing on interviews with intergenerational feminist activists from the UK the USA Australia Canada and New Zealand as well as archival and digital activist materials Megarry boldly concludes that feminists should abandon social media and return to the transformative powers of older forms of women centred political praxis This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Women's and Gender Studies Lesbian and Queer Studies Social Movement Studies Critical Internet Studies and Political Communication as well as anyone with an interest in feminist activism and the history of the WLM Understanding Popular Culture and World Politics in the Digital Age Laura J.

currently evolving in transpatriarchal contexts Terrell Carver University of Bristol What have men and globalization got to do with each other How are men shaping and being shaped by globalization How is globalization gendered Why do many books on globalization fail to discuss gender relations And why do many of those that do omit an explicit and developed analysis of men and gender relations Men of the World brings together autobiographical reflections and memories on changing personal locations contemporary empirical studies on major power processes and up to date theoretical development It considers the implications of debates on globalization for analyzing men and the implications of debates on men and masculinities for globalization transnational change and transnational patriarchies as part of engagement and critique focused on the global North Specific chapters address diverse transnational issues transnational bodies and emotions in violence violation and militarism transnational organizing across states big business global finance and activism transnational movements in the environment migration and information and communication technologies and sexualities and finally challenges to the gender category of men An essential read for students and researchers of gender sexuality masculinity intersectionality and globalization across the social sciences Jeff Hearn is Guest Faculty Research Professor Gender Studies rebro University Sweden Professor of Management and Organization Hanken School of Economics Finland Professor of Sociology University of Huddersfield UK

Understanding Comparative Politics Lisa A. Baglione, 2024-02-22 Understanding Comparative Politics links comparative politics to identity helping students make personal connections and actively learn and explore through maps data theory and reflection questions Issues of race gender ethnicity and religion are put into context encouraging critical thinking about world regions and individual countries through the lens of current events Sexual Abuse and Education in Japan Robert O'Mochain, Yuki Ueno, 2022-09-09 Bringing together two voices practice and theory in a collaboration that emerges from lived experience and structured reflection upon that experience O Mochain and Ueno show how entrenched discursive forces exert immense influence in Japanese society and how they might be most effectively challenged With a psychosocial framework that draws insights from feminism sociology international studies and political psychology the authors pinpoint the motivations of the nativist right and reflect on the change of conditions that is necessary to end cultures of impunity for perpetrators of sexual abuse in Japan Evaluating the value of the MeToo model of activism the authors offer insights that will encourage victims to come out of the shadows pursue justice and help transform Japan's sense of identity both at home and abroad Ueno a female Japanese educator and O Mochain a non Japanese male academic examine the nature of sexual abuse problems both in educational contexts and in society at large through the use of surveys interviews and engagement with an eclectic range of academic literature They identify the groups within society who offer the least support for women who pursue justice against perpetrators of sexual abuse They also ask if far right ideological extremists are fixated with proving that so called comfort women are higaisha buru or fake victims Japan would have much to gain on the international stage were it to fully acknowledge historical crimes of sexual violence yet it continues to refuse to do so O Mochain and Ueno shed light on this puzzling refusal through recourse to the concepts of international status anxiety and male hysteria An insightful read for scholars of Japanese society especially those concerned about its treatment of women Handbook on Gender and Cities Linda Peake,Anindita Datta,Grace Adeniyi-Ogunyankin,2024-10-03 This Handbook acts as a state of the art foundation for the field of gender and cities scholarship through in depth assessments of the latest research within key areas of feminist urban academia Multidisciplinary in its scope editors Linda Peake Anindita Datta and Grace Adeniyi Ogunyan bring together over 60 feminist scholars to present contemporary research in this important field of study Gaslighted Christine L. Williams,2021-10-12 The oil and gas industry is one of the richest and most powerful industries in the world In recent years company avowals in support of diversity much touted programs for women in STEM and most importantly a tight labor market with near parity in women pursuing geoscience credentials might lead us to expect progress for women in this industry s corporate ranks Yet for all the talk of the great crew change the industry remains overwhelmingly white and male Sociologist Christine L Williams asks where are the women To answer this question Williams embarked on a decade long investigation one involving one hundred in depth interviews a longitudinal survey and ethnographic research that allowed her to observe the industry in times of boom and bust She found that when the industry expands women may be able to walk through the door but when the industry contracts the door becomes a revolving one whirling ever faster as companies retreat to their white male core These gendered outcomes are obscured by firms stated commitments to diversity in hiring and the language of merit The result is organizational gaslighting a radical dissonance between language and practice that Williams exposes for all
