Seeking Wisdom from God Thomas H. Walker,2011 Seeking Wisdom from God presents a fresh and unique look at some Biblical topics Because knowledge increases faster than wisdom we have an abundance of Biblical knowledge and a shortage of Biblical wisdom Knowledge has increased due to our advances in understanding the ancient Hebrew and Greek languages coupled with the dissecting of Scripture using historical textual and literary analysis Tragically Christianity looks nothing like its inception on the Day of Pentecost Why are there over 20 000 different denominations Why do I still sin daily Have we replaced Divine Illumination with historical literary and textual analysis If Adam had not sinned the world s population would have reached 100 billion in 1 836 years How are we all going to fit on this planet when eternity begins Why did God plant a fruit yielding tree in Eden and then forbid Adam and Eve from eating of its fruit This was a very good book by a man of great wisdom Five Stars LibraryThing Reviewer It s such an eye opener book Five Stars LibraryThing Reviewer This is an excellent book for Bible study It brings Biblical truths into a new perspective Five Stars LibraryThing Reviewer a marvelous fusion of faith and scholarship First Editing perfect characters on which to do a study of leadership We can learn a lot from David s life We can learn what to do and what not to do I think both are important No one is perfect and learning those tough lessons on someone else s behalf is as important as learning the more positive ones David was God s anointed He started as a shepherd and through God s leadership he became a ruler of a nation and a shepherd over His people David did not set out to be Israel s king He did not set out to be a leader He was thrust into circumstances not of his making He went through his own crucible time and time again Through each experience he put more tools in his toolbox so to speak Although not perfect by any measure his zeal for God and faith in God became the standard that all future kings of Israel would be measured against We can learn a lot from current and prior leaders regardless of where we find them Like the cook making a stew you choose which ingredients and how much to use and learn what works and what doesn t work for you along the way as you perfect your recipe

Guided by Grace Dr. Paul Chappell, 2000 Look, You're a Leader! ; a New Look at Servant-leadership for Women Daisy Hepburn, 1985 Motivational Immediacy in the Workplace Jonathan E. Taylor, 2022-05-02 Learners are always motivated they just may not be motivated to learn the things you are wanting them to learn Motivational Immediacy refers to the moment by moment motivation of learners during a learning event This is in contrast to typical global views of motivation and while casting a much heavier burden on the instructor brings with it more deep meaningful and permanent learning Motivational Immediacy in the Workplace focuses not only on fostering learner engagement with a primary emphasis on the role of the instructor but also addresses the work and concerns of curriculum writers and training directors The author defines Motivational Immediacy as both a phenomenon and a practice and provides concrete steps for practical action Motivational Immediacy as a construct refers to a moment by moment feeling of motivation on the part of the learner to engage in the learning opportunity directly at hand As a practice it is the instructor's process of working to stay connected with individual learners and foster engagement consistently at every moment of the teaching activity The author addresses this idea from a learner centered orientation making the case that understanding and empathizing with the learner s perceptions is the most effective way to promote efficient meaningful learning The book will provide a comprehensive conceptualization of learning engagement and learning resistance It begins with a substantial theoretical framework and then shifts to direct applications to practice in the workplace Motivational Immediacy is multidisciplinary and draws from fields such as Adult Education Workplace and Training Development Psychology Educational Psychology Sociology Cultural Anthropology and Communications
