

Social Media Policy

Purpose

This policy has been developed in recognition of the growing popularity of and participation in online social media. Target is supportive of team members participating in social media in their personal time to keep in touch with their friends, share information or become involved in online discussions.

However, for team members who use social media either as part of their job or in a personal capacity, it is important to understand team member employment obligations when the online communication is about Target, our products and services, team members or other work-related issues.

Social Media

The term 'social media' refers broadly to any online media which allows for user participation, interaction or publishing. Commonly used social media tools include but are not limited to, Facebook, MySpace, YouTube, Twitter, weblogs, Flickr, forums and discussion boards and wikis.

Policy Application

This policy applies to all team members and contractors of Target.

This policy does not apply to:

- team members' personal use of social media where no reference is made to Target and/or such usage has no connection to the workplace or work-related matters;
- or
- online communications published by Target representatives who are specifically authorised to communicate via social media platforms on behalf of Target.
