Research on E-Learning and ICT in Education Tharrenos, Bratitsis, 2023-06-30. This book is comprised of research-based chapters developed from selected full papers presented at the Pan Hellenic and International Conference ICT in Education. It includes covering technical, pedagogical, organizational, instructional, as well as policy aspects of ICT in Education and e-Learning. Special emphasis is given to applied research relevant to the educational practice guided by the educational realities in schools, colleges, universities, and informal learning organizations. Further, the book encompasses current trends, perspectives, and approaches determining e-Learning and ICT integration in practice, including learning and teaching, curriculum and instructional design, learning media and environments, teacher education, and professional development. Since 2012, Springer has published a volume entitled Research on e-Learning and ICT in Education: Technological, Pedagogical, and Instructional Issues at the conclusion of every conference. These volumes are based on research work originally presented in the conference series mentioned above, but the call for chapters is open and disseminated to the international community, attracting also international contributions. Furthermore, as the editors are also involved in EU-funded international research projects in the area of educational technology, we strongly focus on attracting submissions demonstrating the current state of the art and most recent research outcomes of such projects.

Self-Regulated Learning Héfer, Bembenutty, 2011-07-15. Self-regulation involves students' beliefs about their own potential for actions, thoughts, feelings, and behaviors that will then allow them to work toward their own academic goals. Clearly, the need for self-regulation in higher education is crucial. This volume describes the theories, tools, and techniques that can be used to assist in the promotion of self-regulation in students, including areas such as goal orientations, self-efficacy, beliefs, social comparisons, self-monitoring, and self-evaluation. Edited by Héfer Bembenutty, assistant professor of educational psychology at Queens College of the City University of New York, this is the 126th volume of the Jossey-Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Teaching and Learning, which offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers.
