Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1902 Health Issues and Adolescents Leo Hendry, Janet Shucksmith, 2006-09-07 Young people do not on the whole speak for themselves they are spoken for by adults

Most research and policy agendas relating to young people are dominated by adult concerns about young people's health rarely are the issues looked at from young people's perspective This gap in our knowledge may be a critical factor in explaining some of the problems that health educators face in getting young people to transform health knowledge into action Based on their own research Shucksmith and Hendry relocate the issues to a young person's perspective and provide recommendations about initiatives relevant to a wide range of professionals and researchers involved in the health education of young people

Sociologies of New Zealand Charles Crothers, 2018-04-13 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the various sociologies of New Zealand from the late 19th century to the present day Opening with previously undocumented insights into the history of proto sociology in

New Zealand the book then explores the parallel stories of the discipline both as a mainstream subject in Sociology departments and as a more diffuse sociology within other university units The rise and fall of departments specialties and research networks is plotted and the ways in which external and internal factors have shaped these is explained Different generations of sociologists including many immigrants are each shown to have left their unique mark on New Zealand sociology The author demonstrates that the rising interest in topics specific to New Zealand has been accompanied by increasing capacities to contribute to world sociology This book will have inter disciplinary appeal across the social sciences and provides a valuable study of the development of sociology in a semi peripheral country The OSAP Prevention Pipeline
