Sol Plaatje Broucher 2016:

Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa Janet Remmington, Brian Willan, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-10-01 Sheds new light on Native Life appearing at a critical historical juncture and reflects on how to read it in South Africa's heightened challenges today First published in 1916 Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa was written by one of the South Africa's most talented early twentieth century black leaders and journalists Plaatje's pioneering book arose out of an early African National Congress campaign to protest against the discriminatory 1913 Natives Land Act Native Life vividly narrates Plaatje's investigative journeying into South Africa's rural heartlands to report on the effects of the Act and his involvement in the deputation to the British imperial government At the same time it tells the bigger story of the assault on black rights and opportunities in the newly consolidated Union of South Africa and the resistance to it Originally published in war time London but about South Africa and its place in the world Native Life travelled far and wide being distributed in the United States under the auspices of prominent African American W E B Du Bois South African editions were to follow only in the late apartheid period and beyond The aim of this multi authored volume is to shed new light on how and why Native Life came into being at a critical historical juncture and to reflect on how it can be read in relation to South Africa's heightened challenges today Crucial areas that come under the spotlight in this collection include land race history mobility belonging war the press law literature language gender politics and the state Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016 Oral history in South Africa Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country's rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon

Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English African Research & Documentation, 2016
