With this book you will bring back life into your family's breakfast routine. There is a saying that to learn about a country's culture is to partake in their food and what better way to learn about a person's heritage than to eat what they ate for breakfast. In this book you will learn about many traditions and why they eat this or that. It contains 50 recipes from all around the world from Asia to America.

Yucatán David Sterling, 2014-03-30. Winner James Beard Foundation Best Cookbook of the Year Award 2015, James Beard Foundation Best International Cookbook Award 2015, The Art of Eating Prize for Best Food Book of the Year 2015. The Yucatán Peninsula is home to one of the world's great regional cuisines. With a foundation of native Maya dishes made from fresh local ingredients, it shares much of the same pantry of ingredients and many culinary practices with the rest of Mexico. Yet due to its isolated peninsular location, it was also in a unique position to absorb the foods and flavors of such far-flung regions as Spain and Portugal, France, Holland, Lebanon, and the Levant, Cuba, and the Caribbean, and Africa. In recent years, gourmet magazines and celebrity chefs have popularized certain Yucatecan dishes and ingredients such as Sopa de Lima and achiote, and global gastronomes have made the pilgrimage to Yucatán to tantalize their taste buds with smoky pit barbecues, citrus-based pickles, and fiery chiles. But until now, the full depth and richness of this cuisine has remained little understood beyond Yucatán's borders. An internationally recognized authority on Yucatecan cuisine, chef David Sterling takes you on a gastronomic tour of the peninsula in this unique cookbook, Yucatán Recipes from a Culinary

Expedition Presenting the food in the places where it's savored Sterling begins in jungle towns where Mayas concoct age old recipes with a few simple ingredients they grow themselves He travels over a thousand miles along the broad Yucatán coast to sample a bounty of seafood shares the people's food at bakeries chicharronerías as street vendors home restaurants and cantinas and highlights the cooking of the peninsula's three largest cities Campeche Mérida and Valladolid as well as a variety of pueblos noted for signature dishes Throughout the journey Sterling serves up over 275 authentic thoroughly tested recipes that will appeal to both novice and professional cooks He also discusses pantry staples and basic cooking techniques and offers substitutions for local ingredients that may be hard to find elsewhere Profusely illustrated and spiced with lively stories of the region's people and places Yucatán Recipes from a Culinary Expedition is the long awaited definitive work on this distinctive cuisine
