Daughters of Char Chinar Almas Hussain,2020 In a land where beauty is a curse Nafisa and Meher identical twins of spellbinding beauty are hidden away from the gaze of men by their slain mother's relatives Their powerful father Kazi had abandoned them at birth Poor and unguarded the sisters build a secret world of their own educating themselves and even finding like minded suitors in a land where love is forbidden But when the need arises their father returns to reclaim them He has killed a man The Jirga Council demands a virgin to atone for his crime Kazi abducts Nafisa and gives her to the wronged tribe as compensation Their leader wrenches off her burqa loosening a torrent of red gold hair How unusual His followers are aroused beyond bearing Nafisa quakes with terror They can hardly wait for her ritual punishment to commence Will Nafisa succumb to their brutal attack Or will she live on to fight alongside her sister Meher for the upliftment of the daughters of Char Chinar Daughters of Char Chinar is a bitter sweet tale of redemption based on the harrowing justice systems that still prevail in parts of South Asia Here rape is a punishment and not a crime

Hope Over Fate Scott MacMillan,2022-08-01 Nicholas Kristof of The New York Times called him one of the unsung heroes of modern times Fazle Hasan Abed was a mild mannered accountant who may be the most influential man most people have never even heard of As the founder of BRAC his work had a profound impact on the lives of millions A former finance executive with almost no experience in relief aid he founded BRAC originally the Bangladesh Rehabilitation Assistance Committee in 1972 aiming to help a few thousand war refugees A half century later BRAC is by many measures the largest nongovernmental organization in the world and by many accounts the most effective anti poverty program ever BRAC seems to stand apart from countless failed development ventures Its scale is massive with 100 000 employees reaching more than 100 million people in Asia and Africa In Bangladesh where it began Abed's work gave rise to some of the biggest gains in the basic condition of people's lives ever seen anywhere according to

The Economist His methods changed the way global policymakers think about poverty By the time of his death at eighty three in December 2019 he was revered in international development circles Yet among the wider public he remained largely unknown His story has never been told until now Abed avoided the limelight He thought his own story was of little consequence compared to the millions of women who rose from poverty with BRAC s help bending the arc of history through their own tenacity and grit The challenges he faced often seemed insurmountable Abed s personal life was a tapestry of love and grief a lover s suicide a wife who died in his arms He was a taciturn man with a short temper that erupted on rare occasions Many of his ventures failed but Abed persevered This book is also the biography of an idea the idea that hope itself has the power to overcome poverty For too long people thought poverty was something ordained by a higher power as immutable as the sun and the moon Abed wrote in 2018 His life s mission was to put that myth to rest This is the story of a man who lived a life of complexity blemishes and all driven by the conviction that in the dominion of human lives hope will ultimately triumph over fate
