

Daughter's Graduation
By: Crystal Rosas

While looking up at the stars and moon,
We realize that you grew up too soon.
We remember the day you were born,
And now look at you all big and grown.
We remember your first day of school,
You were too scared to break a rule.
You made us proud throughout 6th grade,
We told you that there was no reason to be afraid.
In junior high, you gave us a hard time,
But we stuck by you through dark and shine.
While in high school, you had your fun,
From the security guards you would run.
After a while you settled down,
You met a guy that showed you not to frown.
Today you made us proud,
Class of 2004 shouts the crowd.
Many doors open for you today,
We realize that you are going the right way.
You made us proud throughout the years,
As we think about it, we burst in tears.
Truly, no words can explain what we feel.
Just know that what we just said is real.
Congratulations

Browne, 2023-02-07 Best Books of 2023 TIME Electric Literature From Lincoln Center's inaugural poet in residence comes this unflinching collection that intricately mines the experience of being a Black woman in America Boldly lyrical and fiercely honest Mahogany L. Browne's Chrome Valley offers an intricate portrait of Black womanhood in America We praise their names the hands that write Praise the mouth that speaks she writes in tribute to those who came before her Browne captures a quintessential girlhood through the pleasures and pangs of young love the thrill of skating hip to hip at the roller rink the heat of holding hands in the dark and sometimes the sting of a palm across the cheek Friendship too comes with its own complex yearnings you ain't had freedom til you climb on bus 62 head to the closest mall for a good seat at the girl fight Reflections of Browne's mother Redbone bolster the collection with moments of unwavering strength give me my mother's bone structure her gap tooth slaughter give me her spine Redbone got a spine for the world Other moments explore the inherent anxieties shared among Black mothers rhythmically intoning names like the tolling of a church bell Because Kadiatou Diallo Because Sybrina Fulton Because Valeria Bell Because Mamie Till The characters in Chrome Valley grapple with the legacies of inherited trauma but also revel in the beauty of the undaunted self-determination passed down from Black woman to Black woman Transcendent and grounded funny and furious Chrome Valley brings depth to a movement solidifying Mahogany L. families so often go in circles leaving us tied up in knots In this illuminating book Deborah Tannen the linguist and bestselling author of You Just Don't Understand and many other books reveals why talking to family members is so often painful and problematic even when we're all adults Searching for signs of acceptance and belonging we find signs of disapproval and rejection Why do the seeds of family love so often yield a harvest of criticism and judgment In I Only Say This Because I Love You Tannen shows how important it is in family talk to learn to separate word meanings or messages from heart meanings or metamessages unstated but powerful meanings that come from the history of our relationships and the way things are said Presenting real conversations from people's lives Tannen reveals what is actually going on in family talk including how family conversations must balance the longing for connection with the desire for control as we struggle to be close without giving up our freedom This eye opening book explains why grown women so often feel criticized by their mothers and why mothers feel they can't open their mouths around their grown daughters why growing up male or female or as an older or younger sibling results in different experiences of family that persist throughout our lives and much much more By helping us to understand and redefine family talk Tannen provides the tools to improve relationships with family members of every age
