Poetic Scriptures Michael E. Williams, 2014-12-28 Poetic Scriptures is a book of poems about the life test and trials of a growing poet He was inspired to write after the sudden loss of his younger sister

Dramatic Global Population Growth Embraces the Growing Older Population Edward A McKinney, 2018-11-16 The world is witnessing a dramatic demographic population growth explosion across all age groups that had its beginning around the early 1800s when the first billion people in population was recorded Most importantly has been an increasing growth in the older population Does population aging matter in the twenty first century Yes it matters because as research has pointed out the increasing older population globally will have a significant impact on all essential societal systems the family pensions and retirement and financial institutions as well as medical health and social systems This growth explosion or phenomenon will affect all continents countries and regions regardless of economic political and military power Causative factors for this global growth in population have come about primarily as a result of medical advances innovations agricultural development and the industrial revolution especially the development of railways seaways and highways A major emphasis of the book focuses on several very important factors the growing older population as aforementioned especially its impact on all of essential societal systems and the subject of ageism Ageism becomes extremely important considering that the growing older population the silver tsunami represents the new majority This new majority will no longer be ignored Gerontologists for years have attempted to call attention to the fact Expectations for old people are based on negative age stereotypes Members of American society generally expect and even encourage the aged to be asexual intellectually rigid unproductive ineffective and disengaged Seniors are supposed to stay out of the way sit in their rocking chairs and enjoy the golden years They are expected to be inactive invisible but happy Levin J and Levin W Ageism Prejudice and Discrimination Against the Elderly California Wadsworth Publishing 1941 pp 97 98 Speaking of being ignored why aren't more members of the older population involved at the decision making tables in shaping a society for all ages After all they would bring years of experiences skills knowledge and values for creating a society for all ages in the twenty first century with justice and human rights for all Currently there is a global movement with a goal of the eradication of ageism in all of its forms Some will recall from several decades ago the Grey Panther Movement in America with a similar mission of the eradication of all injustices at the time being experienced by the older population The current movement says The time is now not later One major social injustice being experienced by the growing old population globally is the lack of income security in old age including the lack of access to other essential services such as medical health and social including long term care More than 50 percent 51 percent of older persons globally do not have basic income security or a social pension in retirement A more alarming statistic is that in Sub Saharan Africa forty seven countries eight two percent 82.5 of retirees do not have a social pension Yes for the older population the new majority the time is now for correcting the aforementioned injustices Maybe what is needed is a human seismic force comprising the new majority to initiate a social movement with a goal of the eradication of all forms of ageism and ensuring that the growing older population will live in dignity and respect in later life including social protection pensions

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
