Kids' Poems Regie Routman, 2000 Provides teaching strategies and describes the poetry writing process to help first graders write poems

Pathways to Poetry Phylliss Adams, Ellen L. The themes and teaching plans provided for each poem offer a variety of activities for integrating the curriculum through poetry.

Problem-posing with Multicultural Children's Literature Elizabeth P. Quintero, 2004 Problem posing with Multicultural Children's Literature documents an ongoing qualitative study of early childhood teachers using a problem posing method with multicultural children's literature. Grounded in critical theory, the text has been written for use in upper division undergraduate and graduate level classes that study infants, toddlers, preschoolers, kindergartners, and students in grades one and two. The book uses examples from both early childhood and elementary teacher education students and practicing teachers' work as they study critical literacy, multicultural children's literature, and integrated early childhood curriculum. This structure provides insights into guided research in child development, cultural and linguistic contexts, learning theory, strategies for teaching young children, family advocacy, and all related aspects of early childhood teacher education as the learners move through the activities.

Words That Sing, Kindergarten: 100 Poetry Charts for Shared Reading Irene Fountas, Gay Pinnell, 2018-08-31 Words That Sing is an illustrated collection of poems, songs, and rhymes that will fill children with language ideas and imagery which will help them use and enjoy the oral and written word. Words That Sing 100 Poetry Charts for Shared Reading contains instructional suggestions and resources that will guide you in the many ways these poetry charts can be used. It includes: Values and goals of poetry; Recommended tools for using poetry charts; Instructional contexts for using poetry charts (e.g., shared reading, interactive read aloud, and independent reading); Links to lessons in the Fountas Pinnell Phonics, Spelling, and Word Study System; 50 ways to use poetry charts; poems; Planning for teaching opportunities when revisiting poetry; Bonus content such as additional poem verses, poem variations, poem actions, and instructional suggestions.

Research in Education, 1974 Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1967 Dragons in My Classroom Barbara Kennard, 2022-06-14 As a young book lover with dyslexia, Barbara found the solution to her reading struggles in Miss Gluding, her first grade teacher, who showed compassion for her student's plight and knew how to help her. From that time on, Barbara knew what she wanted to be: a teacher just like Miss Gluding. Unfortunately, Barbara also had some bad teachers in the years that ensued, including her sixth grade teacher, an exacting woman who called attention to Barbara's learning disabilities in front of classmates. Still wanting to follow in Miss Gluding's footsteps, in 1964 Barbara vowed she would be a better one than her sixth grade teacher. Instead, however, she became very much like her, with unattainable expectations for her students and herself. After seventeen years in the teaching profession, she realized she had to either change her teaching style or change careers. By providence, right as she stood at this crossroads, she was offered the opportunity to teach overseas at The Dragon School in Oxford, England, for a year, an opportunity she jumped at. In the year that followed, Barbara would rely on her faith in God to give up a lot of what she knew about teaching and learn to do it differently, ways that wouldn't have room for her perfectionism. In short, she would have to begin again. Games with Books Peggy Kaye, 2002-03-21 A guide for parents offers techniques for sharing books with children and fostering a love of reading. Resources in Education, 1999
