Pwani University School Based Programmes:

The Higher Education Institutions Handbook, 2012 Child and Adolescent Development Anne Stevenson, 2018-04-16

Global public health has improved vastly during the past 25 years and especially in the survival of infants and young children. However, many of these children, particularly in Africa, continue to live in poverty and in unhealthy, unsupportive environments and will not be able to meet their developmental potential. In other words, they will survive but not thrive. The UN's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) stress sustainable development, not just survival and disease reduction, and the Global Strategy for Women's, Children's, and Adolescents' Health proposes a 'Survive' end preventable deaths, 'Thrive' ensure health and wellbeing, and 'Transform' expand enabling environments agenda. For children to thrive, they must make good developmental progress from birth until the end of adolescence. Addressing the social determinants of developmental problems, this volume offers a broad contextualised understanding of the factors that impact on children and adolescents in Africa. Unlike other works on the subject, it is Africa-wide in its scope, with case studies in Ethiopia, Kenya, Malawi, Nigeria, Rwanda, and South Africa. Covering mental health as well as physical and social development, it looks at policies and practice, culture, and priorities for research, identifying challenges and proposing solutions.

Research Handbook on Leadership in Healthcare Naomi Chambers, 2023-09-06. This timely Research Handbook provides a comprehensive and transdisciplinary overview of current research in the field of health leadership. Emphasising diverse perspectives and under-explored issues, it calls for a sustainable future embracing social justice, technological innovation, and artificial intelligence, patient-centredness of care, and the fair treatment of workers. This title contains one or more Open Access chapters.

World Review Marco Rieckmann, Rosalba Thomas Muñoz, 2024-06-21. The global landscape of education has been reshaped by the COVID-19 pandemic, revealing the various challenges faced by countries worldwide. This book provides a comprehensive exploration of Environmental and Sustainability Education (ESE) across different countries, offering unique insights into their histories, challenges, achievements, and future ESE needs. From Africa to Oceania, the book delves into the vital role of ESE in the context of the UN Sustainable Development Goals. It highlights the diverse national discourses and the flexibility required to deliver effective global education programs. ESE practitioners, researchers, and policymakers worldwide will find inspiration and invaluable perspectives in this book.

Sub-Saharan Africa: Strengthening resilience to safeguard agricultural livelihoods Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2021-12-22. In 2019 and 2020 alone, sub-Saharan Africa was hit by a once-in-a-century desert locust upsurge and the COVID-19 pandemic while simultaneously facing conflict, droughts, and floods among other shocks and stressors. More than 60 percent of the population in sub-Saharan Africa depends on agriculture for food and income. Smallholder farmers, pastoralists, fishers, and foresters are the key change agents in restoring and improving livelihoods in Africa. By carrying out interventions that are both anticipatory and reactive, tackling the root causes of fragility, the challenges facing food security and nutrition can be addressed. In the effort to reach Zero

Hunger by 2030 the transformation to more efficient inclusive resilient and sustainable agri food systems must be supported for better production better nutrition a better environment and a better life leaving no one behind This publication highlights how FAO is working with partners and governments to strengthen the ability of communities in sub Saharan Africa and food systems to withstand and rapidly recover from crises The organization is contributing to safeguarding the livelihoods of the most vulnerable agro pastoral households in sub Saharan Africa through a range of activities including capacity building knowledge sharing food security and nutrition analyses and anticipatory actions The achievements and interventions presented in this publication are not a comprehensive list of all of FAO s resilience work in the region but rather provide an overview of what is being done to reach our common goal This is made possible through strong partnerships at all levels Resource partners valuable contributions in particular are critical to these successes By strengthening collaboration with local regional and global partners the persistent challenges related to food crisis contexts are tackled to build back better livelihoods and agri food systems to ensure a positive future for the African people

Early Childhood Education and Care in a Global Pandemic Linda Henderson,Katherine Bussey,Hasina Banu Ebrahim,2022-06-23 Early Childhood Education and Care in a Global Pandemic is a book that highlights how the international early childhood education and care sector responded to the global COVID 19 pandemic It shows the resiliency of the sector around the world as it grappled with a rapidly changing environment of uncertainty and complexity Drawing on a diverse range of early childhood education and care contexts the book captures real life examples of how COVID 19 impacted children educators and teachers and families Chapters present cases of the particular challenges that COVID 19 presented in a wide range of countries and then how they responded to these challenges challenges that tested the resilience of children educators and teachers and families By forward anchoring each chapter examines the opportunities that arose from these challenges and how new local knowledge was produced as new ways were found to support children educators and teachers and families during this time This book offers early childhood education and care a timely resource on lessons learnt from a once in a lifetime event It offers the sector a way forward to commit to developing new ways of thinking and working that stem from the lessons learnt during the COVID 19 pandemic

Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors,Maria Brons,Marc Marschark,2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world

International License via link springer.com The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M.,Arasa, Josephine N.,2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya
