Resources in Education

,1989-04 Children and Cross-Examination J R Spencer,Michael Lamb,2012-06-01 In 2009 Stephen Barker was convicted of rape on the evidence of a little girl who was four and a half years old at the trial and about three and a half when first interviewed by the police The high point of the proceedings was the child s appearance as a live witness in order for Barker s counsel to attempt a cross examination This case focused attention on the need imposed by current English law for even tiny children to come to court for a live cross examination In 1989 the Pigot Committee proposed a scheme under which the whole of a young child s evidence including cross examination would be obtained out of court and in advance of trial In 1999 a provision designed to give effect to this was included in the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act but it has not yet been brought into force The full Pigot proposal was implemented however in Western Australia and similar schemes operate in a number of European jurisdictions This book of essays examines a number of these schemes and argues the case for further reforms in the UK

Competence and Instructor Social Presence: Enhancing Teaching and Learning in the Online Environment

Sherwyn Morreale,Patrick R. Lowenthal,Janice Thorpe ,Larisa Olesova,2024-05-16 The coronavirus pandemic mandated unexpected instant transitions to remote learning and accelerated student demand for online courses As a result colleges and universities in the U S and around the world began and have continued to expand their online courses and degree programs The online learning industry is projected to pass 370 billion by 2026 and one third of post secondary school administrators indicate they will continue to offer both remote and online course options even after their campuses completely resume offering in person face to face courses Students have demonstrated there is an increased demand for online courses as well A national survey of 1 413 students registered at U S higher education institutions in fall 2020 and spring 2021 said their experiences with learning remotely during the pandemic left them with a positive attitude toward online and hybrid courses This increased interest calls attention to the need for more scholarly examination of online teaching and learning

The complete unit guide for the Award in Education and Training: Understanding and Using Inclusive Teaching and Learning Approaches in Education and Training Nabeel Zaidi, 2015-07-22 This textbook provides you with all the up to date information and guidance you need to pass first time It focuses systematically on each of the assessment criteria in the unit and provides a suggested structure for drafting responses to meet the requirements of the unit s assessment criteria As a lecturer trainer tutor assessor curriculum manager how do you ensure

- 1 that all individual learners needs are identified and met effectively
- 2 that full account is taken of disability and learning difficulties when preparing and delivering teaching learning and assessment strategies
- 3 that strategies applied to reduce the barriers to learning experienced by disabled learners and those with learning difficulties are legitimate and reasonable and do not provide them with an unfair advantage
- 4 that the most appropriate teaching learning and assessment methods are used and
- 5 that sessions are planned and delivered effectively and evidenced accordingly as part of a MICRO TEACH

This textbook addresses each of these questions with supporting research as needed while remaining tightly focused on the unit s assessment criteria Out of the three units of the Award in Education and Training Understanding and Using Inclusive Teaching and Learning Approaches in Education and Training is probably the most demanding to understand and apply What sets this book apart is the author s application of his considerable experience to this subject area in order to simplify it for those new to teaching and or new to the subject Whether you are delivering training or lectures to 16 18 year olds mature learners professionals managers or international students with a range of learning needs and barriers to learning this book will prove useful in preparing you not only for your unit assessment but also for work in the sector Most importantly the book adopts a practical approach which is supported by evidence and where relevant cross referenced to Ofsted and QAA expectations It is therefore suitable for those intending to enter teaching and training as well as those already involved in delivering or managing a programme This textbook is mapped directly to each of the learning outcomes and assessment criteria for the unit across all awarding organisations It provides detailed practical explanation and links to various other resources so that whether you are new to teaching or already in a teaching or related role there will be a detailed examination of inclusive teaching and learning approaches in education and training The key benefits to the reader of this textbook are as follows It is written by an experienced practitioner with extensive experience across the further education and skills sector occupying a variety of roles It adopts a practical approach to topics reflecting current practice in the sector It includes detailed guidance on structuring effective responses to assessment tasks It is clearly written and easy to understand It fully addresses each of the learning outcomes and assessment criteria in a systematic way which makes completing the unit and assessments in a short timeframe achievable It provides a broader range of information and examples which should prove useful when preparing to enter the sector such as attending job interviews for teaching related posts Other unit related publications for the Award in Education and Training include The complete unit guide for the Award in Education and Training Understanding Roles Responsibilities and Relationships in Education and Training The complete unit guide for the Award in Education and Training Understanding and Using Inclusive Teaching and Learning Approaches in Education and Training The complete unit guide for the Award in Education and Training Understanding Assessment in Education and Training Micro teach Masterclass Preparing and delivering your micro teach for the Award in Education and Training and for interviews in teaching Accountancy ,1990
