Game Faces Sarah K. Fields,2016-05-30 Sports figures cope with a level of celebrity once reserved for the stars of stage and screen In Game Faces Sarah K Fields looks at the legal ramifications of the cases brought by six of them golfer Tiger Woods quarterback Joe Montana college football coach Wally Butts baseball pitchers Warren Spahn and Don Newcombe and hockey enforcer Tony Twist when faced with what they considered attacks on their privacy and image Placing each case in its historical and legal context Fields examines how sports figures in the U S have used the law to regain control of their image As she shows decisions in the cases significantly affected the evolution of laws related to privacy defamation and publicity areas pertinent to the lives of the famous sports figure and the non famous consumer alike She also tells the stories of why the plaintiffs sought relief in the courts uncovering motives that delved into the heart of issues separating individual rights from the public s perceived right to know A fascinating exploration of a still evolving phenomenon Game Faces is an essential look at the legal playing fields that influence our enjoyment of sports The

Political Relevance of Food Media and Journalism Elizabeth Fakazis,Elfriede Fürsich,2023-01-31 Interrogating the intersections of food journalism and politics this book offers a critical examination of food media and journalism and its political potential against the backdrop of contemporary social challenges Contributors analyze current and historic examples such as BlackLivesMatter COVID 19 climate change Brexit food sovereignty and identity politics highlighting how food media and journalism reach beyond the commercial imperatives of lifestyle journalism to negotiate nationalism globalization and social inequalities The volume challenges the idea that food media journalism are trivial and apolitical by drawing attention to the complex ways that storytelling about food has engaged political discourses in the past and the innovative ways it is doing so today Bringing together international scholars from a variety of disciplines the book will be of great interest to scholars and students of journalism communication media studies food studies sociology and anthropology
