CHAPTER 8

Managing Strategy and Strategic Planning

CHAPTER SUMMARY

This chapter discusses how organizations manage strategy and strategic planning. It begins by examining the nature of strategic management including its components and alternatives. It then describes the kinds of analyses needed for firms to formulate their strategies. Next it examines how organizations first formulate and then implement business strategies, followed by a parallel discussion at the corporate strategy level. The chapter concludes with a discussion of international and global strategies.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After covering this chapter, students should be able to:

1. Discuss the components of strategy, types of strategic alternatives, and the distinction between strategy formulation and strategy implementation.
2. Describe how to use SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats) analysis in formulating strategy.
3. Identify and describe various alternative approaches to business-level strategy formulation.
4. Describe how business-level strategies are implemented.
5. Identify and describe various alternative approaches to corporate-level strategy formulation.
6. Describe how corporate-level strategies are implemented.
