Re-Writing Jesus: Christ in 20th-Century Fiction and Film Graham Holderness,2014-11-20 At the heart of Christian theology lies a paradox unintelligible to other religions and to secular humanism that in the person of Jesus God became man and suffered on the cross to effect humanity s salvation In his dual nature as mortal and divinity and unlike the impassable God of other monotheisms Christ thus became accessible to artistic representation Hence the figure of Jesus has haunted and compelled the imagination of artists and writers for 2 000 years This was never more so than in the 20th Century in a supposedly secular age when the Jesus of popular fiction and film became perhaps more familiar than the Christ of the New Testament In Re Writing Jesus Christ in 20th Century Fiction and Film Graham Holderness explores how writers and film makers have sought to recreate Christ in work as diverse as Anthony Burgess s Man of Nazareth and Jim Crace s Quarantine to Martin Scorsese s The Last Temptation of Christ and Mel Gibson s Passion of the Christ These works are set within a longer and broader history of Jesus novels and Jesus films a lineage traced back to Ernest Renan and George Moore and explored both for their reflections of contemporary Christological debates and their positive contributions to Christian theology In its final chapter the book draws on the insights of this tradition of

Christological representation to creatively construct a new life of Christ an original work of theological fiction that both subsumes the history of the form and offers a startlingly new perspective on the biography of Christ      Exotic Animal Formulary - E-Book James W. multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen s oeuvre the selected material spans the author s early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen s early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen s fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions By analyzing Verronen s dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses Verronen s narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen s novels foregrounds the open connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen s works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature s emphasis on space spatiality and environmental issues Moreover the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations As the study contextualizes Verronen s works within Nordic and European literatures it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions The
