Ruud Ganzevoort, Srdjan Sremac, 2017-03-08 This volume explores the ways in which lived religion encourages and contributes to conflicts as well as fosters tolerance in the interlocking rural urban and virtual social spheres Through ten case studies with vast geographical and religious variation the contributors address some of the shortcomings in analyses of the relationship between religion and in tolerance and offers a theoretically and empirically more nuanced understanding of the micro politics of in tolerance and the roles of lived religion in it The book argues that in tolerance and its connection to religion cannot be fully understood unless analyzed from below which means that the focus needs to be not only on public institutions or religious political spaces but also on in tolerance of ordinary people and their performativity practices and interests in non institutionalized spaces This showcases the ambiguous interconnectedness of lived religion and in tolerance Lived Religion and the Politics of In Tolerance will be of interest to students and scholars interested in lived religion the relationship between politics and religion and those working in cross cultural dialogue and through an anti racism and anti violence lens

Feminist Theologies

Stephen Burns, Rebekah Pryor, 2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements. Chapters are written from different cultures, geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration, detention, hate crime, discrimination, rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination. The contributors variously echo, celebrate, question and contradict each other. Despite the complexity and allied as they are with liberation, decolonial, ecological, queer and other theologies, these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems, oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds. A Blackqueer Sexual Ethics Elyse Ambrose, 2024-05-30 In A Blackqueer Sexual Ethics: Embodiment, Possibility and Living Archive Elyse Ambrose looks to an archive of Blackqueerness as an authoritative source for religious ethical reflection. This approach counters the disintegrative norms of anti-Black and anti-body traditionalism in Christian sexual ethics, even those that strive to be liberative. It builds upon a tradition of Black queer and LGBTQ centered critique at the intersections of race, sexuality, gender and religion through exploring the moral imagination of sexual and gender non-conformist communities in 1920s Harlem, their rent parties, blues environments and Hamilton Lodge Ball, ethics and theology, blackqueering the disciplines and contemporary oral histories including photographs of the subjects by the scholar-artist of those doing ethics in their Blackqueerness. These serve as integrative sites that signal Blackqueer ethical counter patterns of communal belonging, individual and collective becoming, goodness embodied, spirit-inspired bodies and shared thriving. Emphases on both personal and social right-relatedness mark a shift from Christian sexual ethics based on rules toward a communal relations based, transreligious ethics of sexuality. Female Authority and Holiness in Early and Medieval Christianity Maria Dell'Isola, 2025-05-06 This collective volume investigates the connection between women's holiness and the notion of time from a diachronic perspective. By looking at temporality as intertwined with the construction of social and gendered roles, the volume analyses narratives related to the varying articulation of female authority considered against the wider background of Christian ideals of holiness between early Christianity and Byzantium.
