Strange how Life can be more than a story
Plots and characters bring a pleasant thrill
With laughter and tears, some sad and funny
Tragedies and heartaches may bring Pain's chill.

A finite journey men must tread along
But storms and trials make it clear to me
In the end there's a Home where we belong
Our purpose is -with God we're meant to be.

Life one page at a time is no wonder
God's the Author, so trust in Him today
He knows the best- His Love stays forever
And the choice is ours to make, if we may.

As clay to the Potter, let our life be-A masterpiece for Him all men can see.

Bosnak, Frans X. Koot, 2021-06-24 The Javanese nobleman Rad n Mas Arya Candranegara V 1837 85 alias Purwalelana journeyed across his homeland during the rapidly changing times of the nineteenth century He travelled around 5 000 kilometres by horse and carriage between 1860 and 1875 His eye witness account The Travels of Purwalelana gives an inside view of Java at the time part of the Dutch East Indies Candranegara explains habits and traditions of both the Javanese and the Dutch he describes the architecture of cities and temples and he marvels about the beautiful tropical landscape as well as about the latest technological inventions such as steam trains horse drawn trams and gas lanterns This Hakluyt publication illustrated with contemporaneous images presents the rare perspective of an Indonesian traveller living in colonial times The author grew up as a member of a Javanese noble family in the hybrid world of the colonial upper class He received a western style education but also learnt how to follow Javanese traditions and to be a good Muslim In 1858 he was appointed to the high rank of Regent of Kudus by the colonial government Candranegara wrote his book under the pseudonym Purwalelana probably because he considered publishing to be an adventurous undertaking and possibly also because it gave him freedom to arrange the events in his own way The Travels represents the first Javanese travelogue ever written and as such it broke with existing traditions Candranegara used prose instead of poetry wrote from a first person perspective rather than a third person and he described present society rather than dwelling upon the common literary theme of kings in battle The result is a lively story in which the armchair traveller shares his experiences on the road It provides its readers with a range of people and topics pivotal to developments in nineteenth century Java a treasure trove for historians and cultural anthropologists alike The volume includes 24 colour illustrations A Companion to

Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century Reading Poetry Tom Furniss, Michael Bath, 2013-08-16 Reading Poetry offers a comprehensive and accessible guide to the art of reading poetry Successive chapters introduce key skills and critical or theoretical issues enabling users to read poetry with enjoyment insight and an awareness of the implications of what they are doing This new edition includes a new chapter on Post colonial Poetry a substantial increase in the number of end of chapter interactive exercises and a comprehensive Glossary of poetic terms Not just an add on the Glossary works as a key resource for the structuring of particular topics in any individual teaching or learning programme Many of the exercises and interactive discussions develop not only the skills of competent close reading but also the necessary confidence and experience in locating historical and other contextual information through library or internet searches The aim is to enhance readers literary and scholarly competence and to make it fun The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 1: The Medieval Period - Revised Third Edition Joseph Black, Leonard Conolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J.
