A strange subject that's maths
Which has never got me any pats.

Three major subjects in mathematics
Algebra, geometry and arithmetic.

Maths is full of calculation
But the problem is in multiplication.

You draw lines for squares and triangles
But you also have to find their angles.

Once when you double it's a square
But when divided by the same number it's a one.

The sums and problems are of tricks
Your mark is zero if it doesn't click.

Knowledge and Evolution Michael Chaberek, 2021-08-31 The question of the origins of the universe is probably one of the most dwelled upon and argued about over the last couple of centuries Ever since Charles Darwin proposed his theory evolutionists and creationists want to settle the issue on their sides But science did not stop at Darwin s time It progressed enormously creating significant problems for Darwinian explanations Is there a better answer than the dominant neo Darwinian synthesis Even more fundamental is the question of whether natural science by itself can explain the origins of nature What are the limits of science and where should we turn to philosophy and theology How do these three domains science philosophy and theology relate when addressing the question of origins Theistic evolution the idea of God using evolution as a means of creating the universe faces problems from both classic Christian theology as well as classic metaphysics Today things do not look good for the dominant views The time has come to propose a new faith and science synthesis one that offers a serious approach to the Bible on the one hand and an honest look at biological findings on the other This book sets a path to such a new synthesis
