Comprehension Our Way Iris Charlton-DePass,2012-04-04 This book is intended for junior high school students who are preparing for the English Language Bahamas Junior Certificate examination Each unit is laid out with an introduction which can be used as a beginning of a lesson followed by a passage letter or poem which could be used in the development of the lesson The skills that are found in the questions that follow each passage or poem should be used to assist in the evaluation of students understanding of what was read and the additional activities should be used to enhance other skills needed to succeed in English Language At the end of the majority of units there is a creative writing section This is to provide the teacher with ideas that students can write about that relate to the themes that were brought out in the piece studied Song and poetry writing are also included in these sections which should help those students who are gearing to become entertainers poets writers etc It is imperative that students at this level be regular readers Examination preparation should in no way discount the overall development of students thinking faculties Educators should ultimately aim to develop the abilities to think and write logically and most importantly to make sound decisions These skills are not likely to be produced by occasional comprehension and grammar exercises Consistent personal development which comes mostly from reading good books and researching is vital Therefore administrators and teachers should stress the importance of independent reading and also ensure that the Language Arts classrooms have libraries with a variety of books for students to use

Upper Elementary Reading Lessons Marilyn J. Chambliss, Linda Valli, 2011-07-16 Engaging students in worthwhile learning requires more than a knowledge of underlying principles of good teaching It demands considerable practice as well as images of what good teaching in particular situations and for particular purposes might look like This volume provides these images These cases were written from authentic unrehearsed lessons taught by upper elementary classroom teachers to diverse groups of real students in intact classrooms Each lesson contains elements of sound instructional practice from which both preservice and in service teachers can benefit Cases are not meant to be ideal but rather to evoke ways of seeing and thinking about good classroom instruction for all learners Accompanied by analytic commentaries from experts representing a particular perspective such as special education and ESOL these unrehearsed cases are written with the understanding that teaching is complex and multi dimensional The cases are drawn from a four year study of 4th and 5th grade mathematics instruction of culturally diverse classrooms with relatively high rates of students from low income families
