

Anthology Poetry - Section B

- Given one poem to write about and need to know all other 14 poems so think and choose which poem is best to compare.
 - Given a list of all poem names and who wrote them
 - 45 Minutes to write the essay
1. Read the poem carefully and decide which poem will work well with it.
 2. Decide a line of argument to link the poems which will form the introduction
 3. Produce a quick plan (5 mins) to compare these poems

Intro = Should contain names of both poets and poems, a brief reference to contexts of both poems and a line of argument linking them together

Para 1 = Compare how Power and Conflict features in the poem - what kind of conflict or power is it and what does the poet think about it?

Para 2 = Compare language features used in poems - e.g. Imagery, similes, personification. It doesn't have to be the same technique for both poems, but you need to link how they explore power and conflict and what the poets are saying about these themes.

Para 3 (OPTIONAL) = Compare language features used in poems

Para 4 = Compare structural features used in the poems - e.g. final line of each stanza, rhyme, anaphora, key last line. It doesn't have to be the same technique for both poems, but you need to link how they explore power and conflict and what the poets are saying about these themes.

Conclusion = What overall messages do the poets want to convey about power and conflict? Evaluate overall effects on the reader, which is more effective for you and why?
