

Mythology Allusion Example

Achilles' Heel

When Achilles was a baby, it was foretold that he would die in battle from an arrow. Naturally, his mother did not want her son to die. So she took Achilles to a magical river which was supposed to offer powers of invincibility and dipped his body into the water. But, as his mother held Achilles by the heel, his heel was not washed by the water of the magical river. Achilles grew to be a man of war who survived many great battles. But one day, an arrow shot at him lodged into his heel, killing him instantly. Achilles was still remembered as one of the greatest fighters who ever lived.

Modern Day Allusion

When someone wants to discuss one's weak characteristic, one will refer to it as the person's "Achilles' Heel," meaning that he is strong in all areas except for that one tiny spot.
