Pygmalion has become by far Shaw's most famous play, mostly through its film adaptation in 1938. Shaw was intimately involved with the making of the film. He wrote the screenplay and was the first man to win both a Nobel Prize and an Academy Award.

Shaw wrote the part of Eliza Doolittle for a beautiful actress named Mrs. Patrick Campbell, with whom it was rumored that he was having an affair. This rumor later turned out not to be true, and some critics read the disappointed love affair between Higgins and Eliza as reflecting Shaw's own romantic frustrations including a long, celibate marriage.

Shaw once proclaimed: "The English have no respect for their language, and will not teach their children to speak it. They spell it so abominably that no man can teach himself what it sounds like." Much of Pygmalion is wrapped up with the class identification that comes with having an accent in British society. As a socialist with strong convictions, Shaw used the stage to expose hypocrisies surrounding marriage, language, and convention. Shaw's preoccupation with language in this play may also have had something to do with the fact that the most frequent criticism of his earlier plays was that his characters engaged in witty banter that lacked depth. By making language the center of this play, Shaw highlights the significance of something that his critics, despite their criticisms, were tending to downplay.

Pygmalion Summary

In Covent Garden, the Eynsford Hills wait for a cab in the rain. When Freddy goes to hail one, he knocks Liza's flowers out of her basket. She accepts money from Freddy's mother, then Colonel Pickering. A bystander warns her that a man is writing down what she is saying, and she confronts him, saying that she has done nothing wrong. Higgins amazes the crowd by imitating her accent and guessing where they all come from. Pickering and Higgins meet and agree to have dinner, and Higgins fills Liza's basket with money before he leaves. Liza leaves in a cab.

The next day, Liza intrudes upon Pickering and Higgins in Higgins's home. She wants English lessons, and Pickering bets that Higgins could not pass her off as a lady at the ambassador's ball in a month's time. Mrs. Pearce takes Liza away to bathe her and dress her more appropriately, and Liza's father arrives and demands some payment. Higgins likes him and gives him five pounds.

A few months later, Mrs. Higgins is writing letters at home when she is interrupted by her son, who shocks her by telling her that he is bringing a flower-girl to his house. The Eynsford Hills arrive for a visit, as does Eliza—with her newly elegant accent and manner. Freddy is

Safi, 2022-06-10 I was born in the mountainous remote district of Pech Kunar Province in eastern Afghanistan before it became known as the Valley of Death during decades of relentless wars As the oldest of ten children encumbered by the constant threat of fatal disease due to a lack of sanitation and clean water as well as an ongoing struggle to attain a good education we were forced to survive on very little while growing up in the extremely traditional and conservative Pashtun tribal society I was exposed early on to discrimination the demands of tribal loyalty and the challenges of self sufficiency and responsibility These themes permeated every facet of my upbringing and form the cornerstones of my memoir Even though I never dreamed that I would have the opportunity to leave the confines of my village and venture out to major cities inside my country a combination of intention hope and luck allowed me to cross the borders of my native land into a wider world which enabled me to find a better life and help for my family members who remained back home My story is one of many hardships ups and downs and volatile twists and turns but it has turned out well so far I see myself now as a person who was swept away by a storm and barely held on to the things that ensured survival I have faced moments of danger quite a few times but emerged from them relatively unscathed primarily because of support from my immediate family and relatives As a young boy newly graduated from elementary school I traveled alone to Kabul where I knew no one I look upon those days as an uncharted journey through alien territory during which I repeatedly relied on my ability to persevere work hard adapt to new circumstances and succeed without sacrificing my heritage and all that it means to me An Afghan Remembers embraces these obstacles and presents them in a transparent light My memoir offers a menu of ingredients for living a life of purpose passion and optimism The central message of my inspiring story will allow readers to come away with the understanding that life is short power is a fickle thing and you never know what's around the corner Most important and this should never get old is remembering that America is a nation built on opportunity and optimism which was the case two hundred years ago and still holds true today Inspired by the Pashto saying No matter where a person goes he always comes back to the children of his ancestors any profits from sales of my book will benefit a high school for girls in Khas Kunar Kunar Afghanistan
