Quai De Loubli:

, Patrick Modiano Akane Kawakami,2015-12-10 The most up to date and comprehensive critical study of Nobel Prize winning author Patrick Modiano Intangible Heritage and the Museum Marilena Alivizatou,2016-06-16 In this comparative international study Marilena Alivizatou investigates the relationship between museums and the new concept of intangible heritage She charts the rise of intangible heritage within the global sphere of UN cultural policy and explores its implications both in terms of international politics and with regard to museological practice and critical theory Using a grounded ethnographic methodology Alivizatou examines intangible heritage in the local complexities of museum and heritage work in Oceania the Americas and Europe This multi sited cross cultural approach highlights key challenges currently faced by cultural institutions worldwide in understanding and presenting this form of heritage French Primitivism and the Ends of Empire, 1945-1975 Daniel J. Sherman,2011-11-15 For over a century the idea of primitivism has motivated artistic modernism Focusing on the three decades after World War II known in France as les trentes glorieuses despite the loss of most of the country s colonial empire this probing and expansive book argues that primitivism played a key role in a French society marked by both economic growth and political turmoil In a series of chapters that consider significant aspects of French culture including the creation of new museums of French folklore and of African and Oceanic arts and the development of tourism against the backdrop of nuclear testing in French Polynesia Daniel J Sherman shows how primitivism a collective fantasy born of the colonial encounter proved adaptable to a postcolonial inward looking age of mass consumption Following the likes of Claude L vi Strauss Andr e Putman and Jean Dubuffet through decorating magazines museum galleries and Tahiti s pristine lagoons this interdisciplinary study provides a new perspective on primitivism as a cultural phenomenon and offers fresh insights into the eccentric edges of contemporary French history A Self-conscious Art Akane Kawakami,2000-01-01 A Self Conscious Art deals with the formal complexities of Modiano s work by reading against the grain of his self professed ingenuousness A detailed examination of his narratives shows the deeply postmodern nature of his writing Parodying precursors such as Proust or the nouveau romanciers his narratives are built around a profound lack of faith in the ability of writing to retrieve the past through memory and this failure is acknowledged in the discreet playfulness that characterises his novels Notes of Eight Year's Travels and Residence in Europe, with His North American Indian Collection George Catlin,1848 The Pleasures of Crime David Platten,2011-12 For 150 years the French public and literati have enjoyed a love affair with crime fiction This book investigates the nature of this relationship and how through periods of dramatic social and political change in France it has flourished It challenges the conventional view of a popular genre feeding a niche market depicting crime fiction instead as a field of creative endeavour which has gradually matured into one of considerable literary fertility By inviting us to share secrets and crack codes creating suspense and at times not shirking from presenting horrific events in graphic language the crime story brings into play the intellect and emotions of its readership This book explores both this intrinsic literary value of the crime novel and its extrinsic witness to historical events and cultural trends arguing that these apparently distinct aspects are in fact dynamic interrelated parts of the same whole This blend of cultural history with literary analysis allows for the discussion of themes such as politics memory the urban environment and youth cultures mixed with case studies of major French crime writers including Gaston Leroux Georges Simenon Jean Patrick Manchette Daniel Pennac and Fred Vargas Catlin's Notes of Eight Years' Travels and Residence in Europe with His North American Indian Collection George Catlin, 1848 A Descriptive Catalogue of Catlin's Indian Collection, 1848 Souvenirs - Tome 3/3, King René D'Anjou and His Seven Queens Edgcumbe Staley, 1847 Violent Histories David Gascoigne, 2007 This series aims to publish new research monographs and essays into relationships and interactions between culture and identity The notions of both culture and identity are broadly conceived interdisciplinary and theoretically diverse approaches are encouraged in a series designed to promote a better understanding of the processes of identity formation both individual and collective Liners to the Sun John Maxtone-Graham, 2000-07 This book takes a candid and insightful look at the rich history construction and crew of the great ships Absent the Archive Lia Brozgal, 2020-11-04 Absent the Archive is the first cultural history devoted to literary and visual representations of the police massacre of peaceful Algerian protesters This corpus or archive includes a variety of cultural texts whose formal diegetic and discursive strategies represent the massacre and its erasure its becoming invisible and its afterlives as a trace a memory a sign *Souvenirs et études historiques.
