The Working Lives of New Writing Center Directors Nicole I. Caswell, Jackie Grutsch McKinney, Rebecca Jackson, 2016-10-03 The first book length empirical investigation of writing center directors labor The Working Lives of New Writing Center Directors presents a longitudinal qualitative study of the individual professional lives of nine new directors Inspired by Kinkead and Harris s Writing Centers in Context 1993 the authors adopt a case study approach to examine the labor these directors performed and the varied motivations for their labor as well as the labor they ignored deferred or sidelined temporarily whether or not they wanted to The study shows directors engaged in various types of labor everyday disciplinary and emotional and reveals that labor is never restricted to a list of job responsibilities although those play a role Instead labor is motivated and shaped by complex and unique combinations of requirements expectations values perceived strengths interests and desires identities and knowledge The cases collectively distill how different institutions define writing and appropriate resources to writing instruction and support informing the ongoing wider cultural debates about skills writing and otherwise the preparation of educators the renewal tenuring of educators and administrative bloat in academe The nine new directors discuss more than just their labor they address their motivations their sense of self and their own thoughts about the work they do facets of writing center director labor that other types of research or scholarship have up to now left invisible The Working Lives of New Writing Center Directors strikes a new path in scholarship on writing center administration and is essential reading for present and future writing center administrators and those who mentor them

Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez, 2020-11-29 This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia

A Paradigm of Care Robert Stake, Merel Visse, 2021-01-01 Remember the pots hammered by spoons from high Manhattan windows and parades of cars and pick up trucks holding dear the medical professionals responding to covid 19 This book is part of that chorus that march to express appreciation for the giving of care And beyond doctors and nurses bless their hearts to mothers caring for their babies for captains for their teams for the soon to be widowers for their wives and teachers for their students but also for the ranchers for their cattle and the contemplative world for our environment This is a book to think more closely of the support for care individual as it so often will be to be woven more closely together in a paradigm of care Care is always prominent Care for others of the family care for those of the tribe care for animals and homes and gardens and properties self care And the purse Even without teaching compensation or legislation care survives but even with these helpings it falls short of the need We live in a crisis of care Thinking explicitly and beyond health care There is no mechanism of state and conscience that delivers care to all the venues of need and seldom in the amounts needed The reservoirs of care are far from empty but at a mark that needs topping up There is need for care advocacy a care ethic a paradigm This book is about that paradigm A care paradigm may bring comfort and recovery more fully to the people and organic creations of the world The paradigm hears the moan of indifference It draws upon the eyes of the heart The paradigm is about how we see the need for care The care paradigm the grand beholding is manifest in how we provide for others how we nurture them give succor how we are disposed and are not to sacrifice to relieve their hurt It is not only caring for those visibly needing care unable to care for themselves but caring for all It is having a disposition that the hurts large and small that all of us carry arouse concern and appreciation from and for each individual the community and the world

Evaluation for an Equitable Society Stewart I. Donaldson, Robert Picciotto, 2016-04-01 Governments and organizations of all shapes and sizes espouse values of equity and social justice Yet there are many examples of unfair social arrangements and employment conditions dysfunctional government practices and growing income inequality in both developed and developing countries worldwide The profession and transdiscipline of evaluation is well equipped to address issues of inequality and social injustice but until recently has been much more focused on primary stakeholder and donor satisfaction being as useful as possible to funders of interventions and evaluations and accountability concerns The authors in this volume challenge the field of evaluation to become more concerned about using evaluation to develop more equitable organizations governments and societies Leading evaluation theorists and practitioners including Michael Scriven Jennifer Greene Thomas Schwandt Emily Gates Sandra Mathison Karen Kirkhart Saville Kushner Lois Ellin Datta Ernest House Robert Stake Patricia Rogers Robert Picciotto and Stewart Donaldson provide a range of visions for how evaluation can play a much larger role in facilitating social justice across the globe Evaluation for an Equitable Society will be of great interest to evaluation practitioners students and scholars It will be of interest to those teaching and taking introductory evaluation courses as well as advanced courses focused on improving evaluation theory and practice

Qualitative Content Analysis in Practice Margrit Schreier, 2012-02-21 Qualitative content analysis is a powerful method for analyzing large amounts of qualitative data collected through interviews or focus groups It is frequently employed by students but introductory textbooks on content analysis have largely focused on the quantitative version of the method In one of the first to focus on qualitative content analysis Margrit Schreier takes students step by step through creating a coding frame segmenting the material trying out the coding frame evaluating the trial coding carrying out the main coding what comes after qualitative content analysis making use of software when conducting qualitative content analysis Each part of the process is described in detail and research examples are provided to illustrate each step Frequently asked questions are answered the most important points are summarized and end of chapter questions provide an opportunity to revise these points After reading the book students are fully equipped to conduct their own qualitative content analysis Designed for upper level undergraduate MA PhD students and researchers across the social sciences this is essential reading for all those who want to use qualitative content analysis
