innovative study of human rights discourse Lena Khor takes up the prevailing concern by scholars who charge that the globalization of human rights discourse is becoming yet another form of cultural legal and political imperialism imposed from above by an international human rights regime based in the Global North To counter these charges she argues for a paradigmatic shift away from human rights as a hegemonic immutable and ill defined entity toward one that recognizes human rights as a social construct comprised of language and of language use She proposes a new theoretical framework based on a global discourse network of human rights supporting her model with case studies that examine the words and actions of witnesses to genocide Paul Rusesabagina and humanitarian organizations Doctors Without Borders She also analyzes the language of texts such as Michael Ondaatje s Anil s Ghost Khor s idea of a globally networked structure of human rights discourse enables actors textual and human who tap into or are linked into this rapidly globalizing system of networks to increase their power as speaking subjects and in so doing to influence the range of acceptable meanings and practices of human rights in the cultural sphere Khor s book is a unique and important contribution to the study of human rights in the humanities that revitalizes viable notions of agency and liberatory network power in fields that have been dominated by negative visions of human capacity and moral action      The Destiny of the Species Jason J.

Stellman,2013-02-12 Have you ever wondered why there seems to be a built in dissatisfaction attached to all human endeavor such that no amount of wealth pleasure or success can free us from the nagging suspicion that there simply must be more to life than what we see around us Whether displayed in film art popular music or in the depths of our own hearts human frustration with the status quo is inescapable Perhaps the reason for this is the fact that God has hardwired us for heaven and instilled within our souls a longing for eternal life that no earthly spoils can satisfy Perhaps it is our future that defines us rather than our past Perhaps it is not the origin but the destiny of the species that truly unlocks the mystery of who we really are It is these and many other questions that Jason Stellman explores in these pages in a way that is simple provocative and culturally engaging If you ve ever stopped to ponder the mystery of who we are and why we re here this book is a must read      In the Jaws of the Leviathan Joya Uraizee,2020-06-01 This book analyzes representations of mass violence in film and fiction about African South American and Asian genocides from the points of view of the bystander and the survivor It argues that in commercial film and fiction metaphors and looks represent the violence and trauma indirectly even when the representation is quite graphic whereas in experimental novels and films looks used to describe the violence are individualized or interactive Both Bapsi Sidhwa s novel Cracking India and Deepa Mehta s film Earth deal with the violence of the partition of India in 1947 While Cracking India educates us about the dangers of the beast the violence Earth shows us the impact the beast has on victims like the beautiful Ayah nanny Similarly both Buchi Emecheta s novel Destination Biafra and Charles Enonchong s videos The Nigerian Biafran War Parts I II III depict the Nigerian Civil War of 1966-69 Yet while Emecheta s metaphors of division and bestiality highlight the selfishness of politicians and the suffering of civilians like Debbie looks exchanged by the survivors and the military in Enonchong's videos highlight the tragic ways in which generals like Ojukwu betrayed and were betrayed. Metaphors and looks in Isabel Allende's novel The House of the Spirits and Bille August's movie which is based on it depict the terror of Pinochet's 1973-89 dictatorship in Chile. Allende and August use metaphors and looks of sight and blindness to describe torture survivor Alba Blanca's trauma. Alba Blanca re-tells the events of the past in order to survive. Photo-journalist Alfredo Jaar's photos and notes Let There Be Light and Terry George's feature film Hotel Rwanda both depict the Rwandan genocide of 1994 but their emphasis is on inability of the Western bystander/reader to hear or see the pain of the survivors. Accordingly Jaar and George choose dark metaphors and looks to represent the violence using diffuse lighting, fades and absences to stand for the violence and trauma. Overall representations of genocide that involve individualized metaphors and interactive looks are vitally important if the complexities of that violence are to be appreciated in the West.

The Rwandan Genocide on Film Matthew Edwards, 2018-07-11. The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century. Many Westerners' understanding of it is based upon the Oscar-winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs. Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994? Drawing on new scholarship, this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema. Interviews with filmmakers are featured, including journalist Steve Bradshaw, BBC's Panorama director Nick Hughes, 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung, Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza.

Genocide and the rule of law : hearing , Genocide and the Rule of Law United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Human Rights and the Law, 2007. The Dramatic Society Klaas Tindemans, 2022-10-26. All societies are by their very nature dramatic. They present themselves especially for those who want to look back in time as a fascinating and confusing whole of theatrical events and constructions. Sometimes the theatre itself succeeds in capturing that fascination and confusion. This book describes the dramatic society in the form of case studies that link politics, history and culture. The Dramatic Society uses selected plays to examine specific moments in history. Its range of subjects are extremely diverse, including Medea as an icon of terrorism, a choreography based upon Shakespeare's As You Like It, horror movies about the German unification, a truth commission dealing with human zoos and the reconstruction of Ai Weiwei's troubles with the tax authorities. This collection of insightful essays deals with theatrical performances, including happenings, installations and movies of the past fifty years, with every chapter attempting to link artistic events with politics and political theory, from Hannah Arendt to Slavoj Žižek. This is a revealing assessment of the ways in which drama and politics become intertwined, offering crucial insights for scholars and students of theatre studies, performance studies, contemporary politics and cultural studies.
