Questce Que Le Vivant:

, Freedom, Slavery, and Absolutism Ziad Elmarsafy, 2003 This book explores the concept of freedom by reading the works of Corneille Pascal and Racine as political theories in the guise of literature Within this framework a certain model quickly becomes apparent namely that of absolute sovereignty as the guarantor of freedom The three writers under consideration share the view that freedom is ensured only by absolute authority rather than the absence of such authority From Corneille who modulates freedom through an erotic link to the monarch as a means through which the glorious individual is brought into the state s fold to Pascal who traces the liberation of the will via absolute submission to God to Racine for whom absolute submission to the most Christian king is the only route to political and personal salvation Elmarsafy studies a politics of taking charge that differs markedly from the contemporary orthodoxy that privileges individual freedom

Le Guide Musical, 1883 Ethics and Justice. Éthique et justice Peter Kemp, Noriko Hashimoto, 2017 The main theme of volume 6 of Eco ethica is Ethics and Justice which focuses on the idea of justice in a metaphysical social and personal sense Justice is considered as a balance between opposite ambitions in interdependent persons and as equity in legislation but not as blind justice Today it is valuable not only on the national but also on the cosmopolitan level Before it became personal justice the idea of justice was considered metaphysical and social both in European and Chinese culture However in modern times it is often reduced to a moral duty without meta ethical responsibility The last section considers the importance of the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur 1913 2005 for clarifying the idea of justice Series Eco Ethica Vol 6 Subject Philosophy Ethics

Foreign Language and Culture Learning from a Dialogic Perspective Carol Morgan, Albane Cain, 2000 This book analyses an intercultural project undertaken by French and English 14 year olds based on an exchange of materials created by the pupils and focused on the topic of law and order The project was based on a view of learning as a dialogic process interacting with others A first language and home culture is acquired through such interaction This project sought to realise this dialogic process in a more meaningful way than is often the case in foreign language classrooms The Melbourne Review ,1885 Olivier Messiaen: Journalism 1935-1939 Stephen Broad,2016-05-06 One of the foremost composers of the twentieth century Olivier Messiaen wrote widely on his music and on his beliefs This is the first edition of his early journalism and provides both the original French text and an English translation The writing in this volume dates from the 1930s before the composer gained the international reputation that he and his music now enjoy The pieces he wrote range from reviews of individual performances to essays on particular works or composers and articles that discuss more general themes such as sincerity of expression in music Many of the articles included in this collection are new to the Messiaen bibliography and others are available here for the first time in English A number are as Broad describes them quietly shocking in that they force us to reappraise certain aspects of the composer such as his role in La Jeune France and his wider participation in the debates of his time This edition therefore represents a new source for understanding Messiaen and provides a fascinating glimpse of the composer in the early part of his career
