Regional Economic Outlook, November 2007, Europe International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2007-11-15 Strong fundamentals should allow Europe to weather financial turbulence relatively well Nonetheless growth is set to ease in 2008 in nearly all countries Policymakers will need to deal up front with the financial market turmoil while implementing fiscal consolidation and structural reforms including in the financial sector to address vulnerabilities raise medium term growth prospects and deliver on the promise of convergence for emerging Europe Three analytical chapters discuss reforms to strengthen Europe's financial systems to allow advanced economies to benefit from innovation without incurring excessive risk and in emerging economies to manage rapid financial deepening and develop financial systems further Information Economy Report 2007-2008 United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 2007 The Information Economy Report 2008 Science and technology for development the new paradigm of ICT analyses the current and potential contribution of information technology to knowledge creation and diffusion It explores how ICTs help generate innovations that improve the livelihoods of the poor and support enterprise competitiveness The report examines how ICTs affect productivity and growth and reflects on the need for a development oriented approach to intellectual property rights in order to enable effective access to technology ICT has also given rise to new models for sharing knowledge and collective production The Global Competitiveness Report 2008-2009 Klaus Schwab, 2008 Regional Economic Outlook, October 2007, Asia and Pacific International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2007-10-15 Economic developments in Asia have been positive so far in 2007 Growth has been stronger and in many cases more balanced than expected across much of the region again led by China and India and inflation pressures remain largely contained Moreover Asia weathered the recent financial turbulence relatively well The outlook is favorable with growth expected to decline only modestly in 2008 as foreign demand for Asia's exports slows The main risk for the region is a sharper than expected global slowdown The World Economic Forum and Transnational Networking Elizabeth Friesen, 2020-06-30 The World Economic Forum and Transnational Networking presents an informative investigation of the WEF as a political actor and important part of transnational civil society Drawing upon extensive original research Friesen analyzes the surprising role the WEF has played in international processes Handbook of Emerging Economies Robert Looney, 2014-03-21 A major new volume in the Routledge International Handbooks series analysing emerging and newly emerged economies including the BRICS countries Brazil Russia India China and South Africa and other likely Turkey Indonesia Mexico and South Korea as well as possible Vietnam The Philippines Nigeria Pakistan Egypt Colombia and Argentina candidates for emerging economy status Chapters on theories surrounding emerging markets including the Beijing Washington Consensus debate offer an overview of current issues in development economics in addition to providing an integrated framework for the country case studies Written by experts this handbook will be invaluable to academics and students of economics and emerging economies as well as to business people and researchers seeking information on economic development and the accelerating pace of globalization Reconceptualizing Development in the Global Information Age Manuel Castells, Pekka Himanen, 2014-08-28 The conditions in which development the process by which people individually and collectively enhance their capacities to improve their lives according to their values and interests operates have significantly changed in the global information age a period characterized by the technological revolution in information and communication the rise of the networking form of social organization and the global interdependence of economies and societies This volume aims to redefine the means and goals of development in this new context first by characterizing the specific mode of development informational development that the authors consider to be the driver of the creation of material wealth in the twenty first century secondly by reconceptualizing human development as the fulfilment of human wellbeing in the multidimensionality of the human experience ultimately affirming dignity as the supreme value of development thirdly by examining the relationship between informational development and human development After first setting out its analytical framework the book brings together a diverse set of empirically rich case studies to illustrate this investigation from across the globe Silicon Valley Costa Rica Chile South Africa Finland the European Union and China and concludes by attempting to reconceptualize development It raises important questions and provides observations including examining the concept of dignity as development to contribute to a policy debate that should provide specific answers linked to the conditions of each society and be enacted by democratic institutions in a concerted global effort to save humankind while there is still time
