The Expressway World Richard J. Williams, 2025-04-28 In the demonology of the contemporary city is there anything more toxic than the expressway Dividing neighbourhoods depressing land values concentrating atmospheric pollutants the mammoth infrastructure of the expressway is now increasingly crumbling into the ground How did we build the expressway world in the first place And what are we going to do now with it now This eye opening book explores these questions partly through the great expressway abolitions of recent years such as Boston's Central Artery buried and covered by a park and Seoul's Cheonggyecheon replaced with an artificial river But the book also uncovers the hidden stories of expressways that have become weird attractions in their own right from London's Westway to São Paulo's Minhocão celebrated in art and literature Above all the book proposes counterintuitively that we find ways to live with the expressway world and to adapt it to a different future inspired by the many examples where people have already reinvented this challenging legacy on their own terms Engaging with case studies across the world and recent thinking in the environmental humanities and architectural theory this is a thought provoking invitation to reconsider the most maligned structures of the recent urban past

Sicily on Screen Giovanna Summerfield, 2020-03-17 With its physical beauty and kaleidoscopic cultural background Sicily has long been a source of inspiration for filmmakers Twelve new essays by international scholars and additional writings from directors Roberta Torre Giovanna Taviani and Costanza Quatriglio seek to offset the near absence of scholarship focusing on the relationship between the Mediterranean island and cinema Touching on class relations immigration gender and poverty the essays examine how Sicily is depicted in fiction satire and documentaries Situated between North and South East and West innovation and tradition authenticity and displacement Sicily acts as a microcosm of the world a place to explore numerous narratives and develop intercultural dialogue It is also the center of cinematographic discussions and events such as the Taormina Film Festival and the SalinaDocFest The volume presents Sicily almost as a character and creator in its own right Tuscany Beyond Tuscany Giulio Giovannoni, 2017 Summer Movies John Malahy, Turner Classic Movies, 2021-06-01 Turner Classic Movies presents a festival of sunshine classics movies that capture the spirit of the most carefree season of the year complete with behind the scenes stories reviews vacation inspiration and a trove of photos Summer Movies is your guide to 30 sun drenched classics that through beach parties road trips outdoor sports summer camp or some intangible mood that brings the heat manage to keep summer alive year round Packed with production details stories from the set and more than 150 color and black and white photos the book takes an in depth look at films from the silent era to the present that reflect the full range of how summer has been depicted on screen both by Hollywood and by international filmmakers Featured titles include Moon Over Miami 1941 State Fair 1945 Key Largo 1948 Monsieur Hulot's Holiday 1953 The Seven Year Itch 1955 The Parent Trap 1961 The Endless Summer 1964 Jaws 1975 Caddyshack 1980 Dirty Dancing 1987 Do the Right Thing 1989 Moonrise Kingdom 2012 Call Me by Your Name 2017 and many more London Calling, 1947 Teaching Transnational Cinema Katarzyna Marciniak, Bruce Bennett, 2016-03-10 This collection of essays offers a pioneering analysis of the political and conceptual complexities of teaching transnational cinema in university classrooms around the world In their exploration of a wide range of films from different national and regional contexts contributors reflect on the practical and pedagogical challenges of teaching about immigrant identities transnational encounters foreignness cosmopolitanism and citizenship terrorism border politics legality and race Probing the value of cinema in interdisciplinary academic study and the changing strategies and philosophies of teaching in the university this volume positions itself at the cutting edge of transnational film studies Contemporary Japanese Cinema Since Hana-Bi Adam Bingham, 2015-06-23 This book studies the key genres in contemporary Japanese cinema through analysis of their key representative films It considers both those films whose generic lineage is clearly definable samurai yakuza horror as well as the singularity of several recent trends in the country's filmmaking such as magic realist filmmaking S.A. Pictorial, 1924 Logic and Scientific Methods Maria Luisa Dalla Chiara, Kees Doets, Daniele Mundici, Johan van Benthem, 1996-12-31 This is the first of two volumes comprising the papers submitted for publication by the invited participants to the Tenth International Congress of Logic Methodology and Philosophy of Science held in Florence August 1995 The Congress was held under the auspices of the International Union of History and Philosophy of Science Division of Logic Methodology and Philosophy of Science The invited lectures published in the two volumes demonstrate much of what goes on in the fields of the Congress and give the state of the art of current research The two volumes cover the traditional subdisciplines of mathematical logic and philosophical logic as well as their interfaces with computer science linguistics and philosophy Philosophy of science is broadly represented too including general issues of natural sciences social sciences and humanities The papers in Volume One are concerned with logic mathematical logic the philosophy of logic and mathematics and computer science Sprezzatura Peter D'Epiro, Mary Desmond Pinkowish, 2001-10-02 A witty erudite celebration of fifty great Italian cultural achievements that have significantly influenced Western civilization from the authors of What Are the Seven Wonders of the World Sprezzatura or the art of effortless mastery was coined in 1528 by Baldassare Castiglione in The Book of the Courtier No one has demonstrated effortless mastery throughout history quite like the Italians From the Roman calendar and the creator of the modern orchestra Claudio Monteverdi to the beginnings of ballet and the creator of modern political science Niccol Machiavelli Sprezzatura highlights fifty great Italian cultural achievements in a series of fifty information packed essays in chronological order Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children's literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Traces of Aerial Bombing in Berlin Eloise Florence, 2023-12-14 The destruction of monuments during the Black Lives Matter movement of 2020 shows how many nations are being forced to grapple with their national histories It is clear that the things which make up our streets form a core part of our historical political and cultural identity Here Eloise Florence turns to Berlin and the deeply entrenched English language narratives about World War II to explore the complicated relationship between violence place and memory in the Anglo American consciousness Centered upon Teufelsberg a hill in Berlin born from the rubble caused by Allied bombing and other sites of violence across Germany's capital this interdisciplinary study unpicks the use and abuse of area bombing and its cultural memory in Anglo American audiences Grounded in theories of new materialism and post humanism and drawing on extensive empirical and auto ethnographic data the issues addressed include moving through urban landscapes as an embodied means of memorializing war and trauma remembering destruction as a means to advance or challenge traditional war mythologies and curation as an entry point for tourists to reconsider the impact of British and American aerial raids including modern drone warfare This innovative volume shines an important light on both the dark legacy of the aerial bombing of Berlin and the ways in which we record and read violent histories more generally As such Traces of Aerial Bombing in Berlin will be an invaluable resource for all scholars of World War II memory culture and public history Creative Filmmaking from the Inside Out Jed Dannenbaum, Carroll Hodge, Doe Mayer, 2010-06-15 Five keys to creating authentic distinctive work whether you are a
