Training Missionaries Evelyn Hibbert,Richard Hibbert,2016-09-08 Missionaries must know God be able to relate well to other people understand and engage with another culture and be able to use the Bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries Missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help Christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth Effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field It also reduces the danger of cross cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of Christianity This book details four key areas that every missionary training program whatever its context must focus on developing It shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross cultural ministry together Reflections of Asian Diaspora Sam George,2022-08-30 Asians make up the largest and most dispersed peoples of the world and Christians constitute a sizable proportion of this population Asian Christians are likely to emigrate and many have embraced Christian faith at their diasporic destinations In light of these realities the Asian Diaspora Christianity series charts the growing interconnections between the Diaspora Christian communities by providing a rich multidisciplinary and contemporary perspective on the globalization of Asian Christianity This volume the last in the Asian Diaspora Christianity series brings together scholars of Asian background and a few others who are situated in diverse locations to draw insights on Christian ministry from a diasporic perspective This volume pays special attention to the Asian diasporic experience in areas of theology and ministry Issues of a practical nature such as English language worship contextual leadership and missionary training are included A Guide for Teachers of Training Classes Margaret Slattery,1912 Mission Training Manual Wayne Barrier,2011
