Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus,2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WW1 from 1914 to the presentThis authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the wars upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production Key FeaturesOffers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWIEstablishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genresEmphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present Facts and Explanations in International Studies...and beyond Patrick Thaddeus Jackson,2024-09-09 The politicizing of facts and factual claims has led some to abandon all talk of a meaningful distinction between a fact and a strongly held political commitment This book argues that what we need instead are better accounts of facts and their relationship to explanation ones that take seriously the dependence of facts on communities of practice and on consensus procedures of measurement but do not abandon the epistemic distinctiveness of facts Bringing clarity and order to the discussion by disclosing both key commonalities and significant differences between the ways we talk about facts and explanations Patrick Thaddeus Jackson argues that although intrinsically more contestable than facts social scientific explanations can nonetheless be related to them in ways that allow researchers to evaluate explanations based on whether and to what extent they accord with the relevant facts in each situation Ardently defending a pragmatist account of knowledge that has no patience with either alternative facts or anything goes relativism the author develops a set of concepts that enables tricky philosophical problems to be dissolved After examining facts causal explanations and interpretive explanations the book culminates in an account of the priority of interpretation in the evaluation of any explanation and any seemingly factual claim Defining the terms of the debate and grounding better conversations about the issues this book will

This book presents a panoramic history of transformations in our global imaginings of war from 1914 to the present It charts a century's meditations on war from painting and sculpture to photography film and poetry and ultimately to silence as a language of memory in its own right War Beyond the Battlefield David Grondin, 2013-09-13

In an effort to make sense of war beyond the battlefield in studying the wars that were captured under the rubric of the War on Terror this special issue book seeks to explore the complex spatial relationships between war and the spaces that one is not used to thinking of as the battlefield It focuses on the conflicts that still animate the spaces and places where violence has been launched and that the war has not left untouched In focusing on war beyond the battlefield it is not that the battlefield as the place where war is waged has gone in smoke or has borne out of importance it is rather the case that the battlefield has been displaced redesigned reshaped and rethought through new spatializing practices of warfare These new spaces of war new in the sense that they are not traditionally thought of as spaces where war takes place or is brought to are television screens cellular phones and bandwidth George W Bush's ranch in Crawford Texas videogames popular culture sites news media blogs and so on These spaces of war beyond the battlefield are crucial to understanding what goes on the battlefield in Iraq Afghanistan or in other fronts of the War on Terror such as the homeland to understand how terror has globally been waged beyond the battlefield This book was originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics Paths Beyond Tracing Out Dolf te Velde, Roelf T. te Velde, 2010

The Legacy of Serbia's Great War Alex Tomić, 2024-01-05 In the winter of 1915 following the invasion of Serbia by the Central Powers the Serbian Army retreated across the mountains of Albania and Montenegro together with thousands of civilians Around 240 000 lost their lives Today the story of the retreat is little known except in Serbia where it represents the heroic Serbian sacrifice in the Great War In this book Alex Tomic examines the centenary events memorializing the First World War with the retreat at its core and provides a persuasive account of the ways in which the remembrance of Serbian history has been manipulated for political purposes Whether through commemorations ceremonies or grass root initiatives she demonstrates how these have been used as distractions from the more recent unexamined past and in doing so provides an important new perspective on the cultural history of commemoration

Waters, 2000 Experts in anthropology geography economics political science history sociology and language assess the present status of the field of international studies Rethinking Israeli Space Erez Tzfadia, Haim Yacobi, 2011-04-26 This book sheds light on the production of Israeli space and the politics of Jewish and Arab cities The authors postcolonial approach deals with the notion of periphery and peripherality covering issues of spatial protest urban policy and urban planning Discussing periphery as a political social and spatial phenomenon and both a product and a process manufactured by power mechanisms the authors show how the state the regime of citizenship the capitalist logic and the logic of ethnonationalism have all resulted in ethno class division and stratification which have been shaped by spatial policy Rather than using the term periphery to describe an economic geographical and social situation in which disadvantaged communities are located this critical examination addresses the traditionally passive dimension of this term suggest that the reality of peripheral communities and spaces is rather more conflicted and controversial The multidisciplinary approach taken by this book means it will be a valuable contribution to the fields of planning theory political science and public policy urban sociology critical geography and Middle East studies
