Post-Western Histories of Architecture Pilar Maria Guerrieri, Marco Biraghi, 2023-06-23 This book seeks to provide an alternative post Western perspective to the history of contemporary architecture It puts forward detailed critical analyses of various areas of the world including Europe Latin America Africa China Australia India and Japan where particular movements of architecture have developed as active political acts The authors focus on a broad spectrum of countries architectures and architects that have developed a design approach closely linked to the building context The concept of context is broad and includes various economic social cultural political and natural aspects In all cases the architects selected in this book have chosen to view context as an opportunity However each architect has considered certain specific aspects of context some have been very attentive to the social context others to material aspects or typological issues and still others to aspects related to political visions or economic factors The analysis critically highlights interesting creative and respectful design approaches towards local conditions such as sustainability in Nordic Europe climate conscious design in Africa and the bottom up sensitivity of India The book s main aim is to retrace through both theoretical arguments and case studies the debate that focuses on politics and the environment Thanks to its valuable examples this book strives to make a conscious contribution to establishing a bulwark against the current flattening out processes that architecture is experiencing This book will be of relevance to researchers teachers and students interested in the history of architecture architecture and planning and postcolonial studies      Architectural Approach to Level Design Christopher W.

Encounters Old and New in World History Alan Karras, Laura J. Mitchell, 2017-06-30 This collection of essays asserts the specific value of world history research and teaching showing how the field contributes to the larger historical profession and offering concrete suggestions to develop more interaction between the academy and the public The twelve contributors each with their own academic areas of interest are experienced scholars and classroom teachers Uniting them together in this volume is their professional relationship with Jerry H Bentley 1949-2012 This shared connection served as a catalyst to showcase Bentley's enduring legacy a commitment to investigating large scale questions with detailed empirical evidence that explains the human condition documenting both patterns of similarity and difference in ways that account for regional and temporal variations The volume continues Bentley's meticulous attention to world historical methods focus on scale cross cultural encounter comparison periodization critical geography and interdisciplinarity Encounters Old and New in World History responds to provocations that Jerry Bentley tendered in his scholarship and through his professional activities Contributors interrogate the institutional settings disciplinary proclivities methodological choices and diverse source bases of world history research and teaching Several essays address the ways in which present day concerns influence research on local and global scales Other essays pay particular attention to the production and circulation of knowledge across regional temporal and class boundaries as well as between the academy and the wider public Claiming the centrality of globally informed and focused approaches to historical inquiry researchers continue the conversations that Bentley carried on through his own scholarship teaching editing of the Journal of World History participating in public forums and contributing to public discussions about the place of history in understanding today's global integration The stakes involved in asking questions about the shared history of humankind continue to increase in the current era of intensified globalization It is incumbent upon scholars with the skills to work across linguistic geographic temporal and disciplinary boundaries to show the ways that cross cultural encounters happened historically and to point out how such interactions play out in the institutions classrooms and public debates where historical interpretations are created and shared

Building Structures Illustrated Francis D. K. Ching, Barry S. Onouye, Douglas Zuberbuhler, 2014-03-04 A new edition of Francis D K Ching's illustrated guide to structural design Structures are an essential element of the building process yet one of the most difficult concepts for architects to grasp While structural engineers do the detailed consulting work for a project architects should have enough knowledge of structural theory and analysis to design a building Building Structures Illustrated takes a new approach to structural design showing how structural systems of a building such as an integrated assembly of elements with pattern proportions and scale are related to the fundamental aspects of architectural design The book features a one stop guide to structural design in practice a thorough treatment of structural design as part of the entire building process and an overview of the historical development of architectural materials and structure Illustrated throughout with Ching's signature line drawings this new Second Edition is an ideal guide to structures for designers builders and students Updated to include new information on building code compliance additional learning resources and a new glossary of terms Offers thorough coverage of formal and spatial composition program fit coordination with other building systems code compliance and much more Beautifully illustrated by the renowned Francis D K Ching Building Structures Illustrated Second Edition is the ideal resource for students and professionals who want to make informed decisions on architectural design

The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750, 2018-12-10 William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe's overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom
