

Experience of the Worst Job

Topic: Business | Words: 844 | Pages: 3

Working in a local ginnery has been one of the worst moments in my career. I have been working in this organization for six months only but I have had bad experience. Apparently, will not continue working in the same position. In particular, our general manager, the human resource manager and my workmates have made my life very difficult. In addition, I have tried to interact with various customers, but most of our communication is restricted, making it difficult to establish effective employee-customer relationships.

When I joined this company six months ago, I had high expectations. I had just completed my undergraduate degree program in human resource management. In addition, I had taken a course in accounting in order to improve my career and increase the probability of getting a good job. Therefore, I thought that the organization would provide me with the chance to exploit my abilities and skills.

I started working for the company after an interview that took about one hour. After the interview, I was among the 12 individuals hired to work in different departments and capacities. I was given the responsibility of handling human resource. I was made the company's assistant human resource manager. In addition, I was given the responsibility of handling employee data, including their salaries and wages. I thought that these responsibilities would give me the opportunity to improve the image of the company and employee welfare. I did not know that these responsibilities were exposing me to frequent conflicts with other individuals in the company.

The problem started when I initiated a thorough and strict procedure
