

The Cold War:

From Hot War to Cold War:

- During WWII Britain and the USA were allies of the Soviet Union fighting against Germany.
- After the war they became enemies.
- After Hiroshima, and particularly after 1949 when Russia developed the atomic bomb, politicians realised that another 'hot war' would kill all humankind – war would be MAD (mutually assured destruction).
- So they stopped short of war – the 'cold war'.
- They didn't declare war but they did everything to oppose each other short of war.
- It was called the 'cold war'. It lasted until 1989.

Causes of the Cold War

1 Beliefs

- The Soviet Union was a Communist country run by a dictator who cared little for human rights.
- The USA was a capitalist democracy which valued freedom.

2 Aims

- Stalin wanted huge reparations from Germany and a 'buffer' of friendly states to protect the USSR from being invaded again.
- Britain and the USA wanted to protect democracy and help Germany to recover.
- They were worried that large areas of Eastern Europe were falling under Soviet control.

3 Resentment about History

- The Soviet Union could not forget that in 1918 Britain and the USA had tried to destroy the Russian Revolution.
- Stalin also thought that they had not given him enough help in the Second World War.
- Britain and USA did not forget that Stalin had signed the Nazi-Soviet Pact with Germany in 1939.

4 Events

- Neither side trusted each other.
- Every action they took made them hate each other more.

Who Caused the Cold War?

- Russian historians blame Churchill and Truman.
- They said Truman and Churchill wanted to destroy the USSR which was just defending itself.
- At first western writers blamed the Soviet Union.
- They said Stalin was trying to build up a Soviet empire.
- Some western historians later blamed the USA.
- They said Truman had not understood how much Russia had suffered in WWII.
- Nowadays, historians think BOTH sides were to blame – that there were hatreds on both sides.

Potsdam July 1945:

- At Potsdam, the Allies decided the post-war peace – Potsdam was the Versailles of WWII.
- America had a new president, Truman, who was determined to 'get tough' with the Russians.
- Truman knew America had just tested the first atomic bomb.
- It gave the Americans a huge military advantage over everyone else.
- In March 1945 Stalin had invited non-Communist Polish leaders to meet him and arrested them.
- So at Potsdam the arguments came out into the open.

World History Chapter 1 Cold War:

Cold War US Foreign Policy Steven Hurst, 2019-07-31 This book provides the first comprehensive description and critique of the six most important historical interpretations of US Cold War foreign policy: Traditionalism, Revisionism, Post-Revisionism, Corporatism, World Systems Theory, and Post-Structuralism. The author uses the levels of analysis approach to demonstrate how each of these perspectives can be understood as an explanatory framework combining different types of factors located at different levels of the international system. This original way of explaining the work of the historians discussed helps the reader to see past the narrative and empirical elements of their writings and to grasp more clearly the underlying theoretical assumptions. In each chapter, a description of the perspective's underlying theoretical framework and how it explains US foreign policy is followed by a critique of that theory and explanation. A central theme developed throughout the book is the difficulty of managing the constant tension between the explanatory power of theory and the historian's desire to encompass the complex totality of historical events. This critical companion can be read alongside the works of the historians themselves, showing how they have sought to explain US Cold War foreign policy and the key differences between their perspectives.

Key Features: 1st complete discussion of the 6 schools of thought in one volume. Discusses current issues such as corporatism, world systems theory, and post-structuralism in an accessible manner. Original use of the levels of analysis framework in studying this subject demonstrates in practical terms how each theory explains US Cold War foreign policy.

Age of Iron Colin Dueck,2019-09-02 The rise of a populist conservative nationalism in the United States has triggered unease at home and abroad Riding the populist wave Donald Trump achieved the presidency advocating a hardline nationalist approach Yet critics frequently misunderstand the Trump administration s foreign policy along with American nationalism In Age of Iron leading authority on Republican foreign policy Colin Dueck demonstrates that conservative nationalism is the oldest democratic tradition in US foreign relations Designed to preserve self government conservative nationalism can be compatible with engagement overseas But 21st century diplomatic economic and military frustrations led to the resurgence of a version that emphasizes US material interests No longer should the US allow its allies to free ride and nor should it surrender its sovereignty to global governance institutions Because this return is based upon forces larger than Trump it is unlikely to disappear when he leaves office Age of Iron describes the shifting coalitions over the past century among foreign policy factions within the Republican Party and shows how Trump upended them starting in 2015 16 Dueck offers a balanced summary and assessment of President Trump s foreign policy approach analyzing its strengths and weaknesses He also describes the current interaction of conservative public opinion and presidential foreign policy leadership in the broader context of political populism Finally he makes the case for a forward leaning realism based upon the understanding that the US is entering a protracted period of geopolitical competition with other major powers The result is a book that captures the past present and possibly future of conservative foreign policy nationalism in the US
