World History Of Architecture Marian:

A World History of Architecture Marian Moffett, Michael W. Fazio, Lawrence Wodehouse, 2003 The Roman architect and engineer Vitruvius declared firmitas utilitas and venustas firmness commodity and delight to be the three essential attributes of architecture These qualities are brilliantly explored in this book which uniquely comprises both a detailed survey of Western architecture including Pre Columbian America and an introduction to architecture from the Middle East India Russia China and Japan The text encourages readers to examine closely the pragmatic innovative and aesthetic attributes of buildings and to imagine how these would have been praised or criticized by contemporary observers Artistic economic environmental political social and technological contexts are discussed so as to determine the extent to which buildings met the needs of clients society at large and future generations

The Architecture Reference & Specification Book Updated & Revised Julia McMorrough, 2018-01-09 Most architectural standards references contain thousands of pages of details overwhelmingly more than architects need to know on any given day The updated and revised edition of Architecture Reference Specification contains vital information that is essential to planning and executing architectural projects of all shapes and sizes all in a format that is small enough to carry anywhere It distills the data provided in standard architectural volumes and is an easy to use reference for the most indispensable and most requested types of architectural information , Sepher Torath Mosheh Daniel Isaac Block, Richard L. Schultz, 2017 In few areas of critical Old Testament research is the chasm between evangelical and mainstream scholarship as broad as in discussions of the book of Deuteronomy The issues relate not only to the provenance of the book but also to its origin and composition its ideology its ethic and its relationship to other biblical books Evangelicals differ in their responses to historical critical scholarship Some avoid it as much as possible others consider neither critical methodologies nor the results of critical scholarship to be threatening to their evangelical convictions The essays in Sepher Torath Mosheh consist of invited papers that were presented at a special colloquium on the book of Deuteronomy at Wheaton College in the fall of 2015 Their purpose is to explore historical literary theological and ethical issues at the heart of the tensions evangelicals feel with regard to mainstream scholarship on Deuteronomy Although the contributors represent a broad spectrum of theological and hermeneutical perspectives within evangelicalism they all subscribe to the statement on Scripture that unites the fellows of the Institute for Biblical Research belief in the unique divine inspiration integrity and authority of the Bible Atlas of World Art John Onians, 2004 Combines a survey of world art with maps showing the associations and dissemination of culture across the globe Historical Dictionary of Architecture Allison Lee Palmer, 2016-05-26 This dictionary provides a historical overview of the major architectural developments and styles building materials and types major structures and locations sites and architects Historical eras like ancient Egyptian architecture and the Renaissance in Europe and movements such as Art Deco are covered Materials discussed range from concrete stone glass and wood while types of structures include architectural inventions such as the arch and dome to building types from monasteries and mosques to museums and skyscrapers Major structures highlighted in this volume include not only great achievements such as Hagia Sophia and the Eiffel Tower but also important sites such as the Great Zimbabwe and Angkor Wat found on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list General geographical areas are also covered such as African and Russian architecture Noted architects include theorists from the ancient Chinese engineer Yu Hao Roman engineer Vitruvius to many current architects such as Zaha Hadid and Santiago Calatrava with a focus on architects who have enjoyed lasting fame through history or have won international prizes such as the Pritzker Architecture Prize This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Architecture contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on architects famous structures types of materials and the different architectural styles This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about architecture Materials Julia
