Blind Obedience Meredith Williams, 2009-12-21 There is considerable debate amongst philosophers as to the basic philosophical problem Wittgenstein is attempting to solve in Philosophical Investigations. In this bold and original work Meredith Williams argues that it is the problem of normative similarity. In Blind Obedience Williams demonstrates how Wittgenstein criticizes traditional representationalist theories of language by employing the master novice distinction of the learner, arguing that this distinction is often overlooked but fundamental to understanding philosophical problems about mind and language. The book not only provides revealing discussions of Wittgenstein's corpus but also intricate analyses of the work of Brandom, Dummett, Frege, Sellars, Davidson, Cavell and others. These are usefully compared in a bid to better situate Wittgenstein's non-intellectualist, non-theoretical approach and to highlight its unique features.

Chinese Politics Daniel Lynch, Stanley Rosen, 2024-04-18 Written by a team of leading China specialists, this updated 2nd edition of Chinese Politics explores the dynamics of state power and politics in contemporary China, focusing on the Xi Jinping era. The book will help readers to think productively about the trajectory of these aspects of Chinese politics and society through Xi's current term and beyond. The book also highlights the potential role outside countries and non-state actors might play in shaping China's trajectory, as the PRC's economic rise may be stalling. Through each exploration of these issues, the book addresses the central question of what the Xi Jinping Difference has been and will likely continue to be in Chinese politics. Key subjects covered in this new edition include Law and the political system, Socialization of youth, The fate of the private sector, Technology and digital authoritarianism, The Belt and Road Initiative, Population aging. Chinese Politics continues to be an essential textbook for all students of contemporary China, as well as scholars interested in the dynamics of political and social change.
