World War Looms

Stephen M. Cohen, Brenda H. Cohen

World War Looms:

Skiing Sun Valley: A History from Union Pacific to the Holdings John W. Lundin, 2020 Union Pacific Railroad s Averell Harriman had a bold vision to restore rail passenger traffic decimated by the Great Depression create ski tourism in Idaho s remote Wood River Valley A 1 5 million investment opened Sun Valley in December 1936 with a lavish lodge luxury shopping Austrian ski instructors and extensive backcountry skiing Prestigious tournaments featured the world s best skiers Chairlifts invented by Union Pacific engineers serviced skiers quickly and comfortably Ski instructor and filmmaker Otto Lang recalled that seemingly overnight it became a magnet for the beautiful people a meeting place for movie stars and moguls chairmen and captains of industry Greek shipping tycoons and peripatetic playboys and playgirls of the international social set After World War II and Harriman s departure Union Pacific s willingness to pay the 500 000 yearly subsidy waned Bill Janss purchased it in 1964 and reimagined it as a year round resort but lacked the capital for growth Sinclair Oil owners Earl and Carol Holding acquired it in 1977 revitalizing it into a premier resort with international status Award winning ski historian John W Lundin celebrates America s first destination ski resort using unpublished Union Pacific documents oral histories contemporaneous accounts and more than 150 historic images The Naval Route to the Abyss Matthew S. Seligmann, Frank Nögler, 2016-03-03 The intense rivalry in battleship building that took place between Britain and Germany in the run up to the First World War is seen by many as the most totemic of all armaments races Blamed by numerous commentators during the inter war years as a major cause of the Great War it has become emblematic of all that is wrong with international competitions in military strength Yet despite this notoriety the Great Naval Race has not received the attention that this elevated status would merit and it has never been examined from the viewpoint of both of its participants simultaneously and equally This volume which contains a comprehensive survey of the existing scholarship on this topic both English language and German as well as important primary source materials from a range of archives in both Britain and Germany fills this gap By putting the actions of the British Admiralty side by side with those of its German counterparts it enables the naval race to be viewed comparatively and thereby facilitates an understanding of how the two parties to this conflict interacted By offering a comprehensive range of German documents in both their original text and in English translation the book makes the German role in this conflict accessible to an English speaking audience for the first time As such it is an essential volume for any serious student of naval policy in the pre First World War era Polish Jews in the Soviet Union (1939-1959) Katharina Friedla, Markus Nesselrodt, 2021-12-14 Winner of the 2022 PIASA Anna M Cienciala Award for the Best Edited Book in Polish Studies The majority of Poland s prewar Jewish population who fled to the interior of the Soviet Union managed to survive World War II and the Holocaust This collection of original essays tells the story of more than 200 000 Polish Jews who came to a foreign country as war refugees forced laborers or political prisoners This diverse set of experiences is covered by historians literary and memory scholars and sociologists who specialize in the field of East

European Jewish history and culture The Twisted Worlds of Philip K. Dick Umberto Rossi, 2014-01-10 Philip K Dick was one of the most popular science fiction novelists of the 20th century but the contradictory and wily writer has troubled critics who attempt encompassing explanations of his work This book examines Dick s writing through the lens of ontological uncertainty providing a comparative map of his oeuvre tracing both the interior connections between books and his allusive intertextuality Topics covered include time travel alternate worlds androids and simulacra finite subjective realities and schizophrenia Twenty novels are explored in detail including titles that have received scant critical attention Some of his most important short stories and two of his realist novels are also examined providing a general introduction to Dick s body of work Proust, Mann, Joyce in the Modernist Context, Second Edition Gerald Gillespie, 2010-09 Gillespie belongs to an endangered scholarly species that of the real comparatists Comparative Literature The Uses Of Autobiography Julia Swindells Homerton College, Cambridge., 2014-03-18 First Published in 1995 Autobiography is commonly understood in terms of giving readers insight into the private lives of unique individuals but in recent years the autobiographical project has absorbed a wide variety of social concerns The contributors to this book explore a range of the uses of autobiography from the nineteenth century to the present day and from Africa USA the Middle East France New Zealand and the United Kingdom The chapters draw on a number of approaches including historical and literary methods to represent the autobiography s purpose of establishing communities of interest and social change Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism Naomi Wynter-Vincent, 2021-12-08 Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism introduces the work of the British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion 1897 1979 and the immense potential of his ideas for thinking about literature creative process and creative writing There is now renewed interest in Bion s work following the publication of his Complete Works but the complexities of his theory and his distinctive style can be forbidding Less well known than Freud or Lacan the work of Wilfred Bion nevertheless offers new insights for psychoanalytic literary criticism and creative writing For newer readers of his work this book offers an engaging introduction to several of Bion s key ideas including his theory of thinking the thought without a thinker the container contained relationship alpha function alpha elements beta elements and bizarre objects K and K the Grid O and the caesura It also offers a way in to Bion s astonishing and challenging experimental work A Memoir of the Future and explores the impact of his devastating personal experiences as an officer during the First World War Each chapter of Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism draws on one or more specific aspects of Bion s theory in relation to creative texts by Sigmund Freud Stevie Smith B S Johnson Mary Butts Jean Rhys Nicholas Royle J G Ballard and Wilfred Bion himself The first full length study to explore the potential of Bion s ideas for literary criticism Wilfred Bion and Literary Criticism introduces his complex and extensive work for a new audience in an accessible and engaging way and will be of great interest to scholars of creative writing literary criticism and psychoanalysis RecordCovid19 Kristopher Lovell, 2023-08-21 RecordCovid19 Historicizing Experiences of the Pandemic provides insights into the experience of the

Covid19 pandemic from an historical and sociological perspective Using the first hand testimonies submitted as part of the RecordCovid19 project as its inspiration the chapters in this edited collection explore and contextualise the initial responses to the Covid19 pandemic The collection examines people s relationships with Covid19 as an historical event including their own experiences of living through history their relationship with their surroundings including their relationships with family the soundscapes and the emotional environments of a pandemic world the impact and tone of political rhetoric including the use and misuse of wartime myths and language in the United Kingdom and finally what lessons can be learnt from how people discuss their own personal stories and what lessons can we draw from previous examples of storytelling in moments of crisis The result is a fascinating and rich discussion derived from an archive full of idiosyncratic experiences of life changing during the Covid19 pandemic

Radio and the Performance of Government Erica Harrison,2023-09-01 Throughout the Second World War the Czechoslovak Government in Exile broadcast over the BBC from London hoping to reach out to their former compatriots living in a divided and occupied Europe As the only way of projecting their authority President Beneš and his colleagues relied on the radio as a stage on which to perform as the government they wished to be representing a Czechoslovak state they hoped to recreate after the war Despite a ban on listening to foreign broadcasts in the German occupied Protectorate and Slovakia many tuned in to hear London calling and the broadcasts provided the strongest connection between the London Czechoslovaks and the audience at home This work examines this government programme for the first time making use of previously unstudied archival sources to examine how the exiles understood their mission and how their propaganda work was shaped by both British and Soviet influences This study assesses the strengths weaknesses and limitations of the government's radio propaganda as they navigated the complexities of exile with chapters examining how they used the radio to establish their own authority how they understood the past and future of a Czechoslovak nation and how they struggled to include Slovakia and Subcarpathian Ruthenia within it Catch a Falling Star Donald D. Clayton, 2009-11 Catch a Falling Star the life story of Donald Clayton follows the struggle of one human being to find love and to create scientific understanding of the origin of the atoms of chemical elements Born on an Iowa farm son of an aviation pioneer he became the first among his family to attend college then graduate school in physics at Caltech His three marriages reveal his battle with sexual anxiety and a sense of loss At the same time he struggled to discover new knowledge about the creation of the atoms of our bodies and our earth His close friendship with two great pioneers of the origin of matter enlivened his scientific life in the United States and Europe His discoveries created two new fields of astronomy whose beginnings are featured in the book Clayton's autobiography chronicles the exciting life that he lived on the frontier of the scientific discovery of the origin of the chemical elements within stars His adventures centered on academic institutions California Institute of Technology Rice University University of Cambridge Max Planck Institute in Heidelberg and Clemson University Catch a Falling Star tells how science and his love of it endowed his life with meaning Setting Europe Ablaze Russell Phillips, 2024-09-01 In the midst of the Second World War Winston Churchill created the Special Operations Executive SOE a secret organisation on a mission to sabotage the enemy Instructed to set Europe ablaze the SOE nicknamed the Ministry of Ungentlemanly Warfare got to work creating a covert team of secret agents The resourceful men and women recruited by the SOE risked their lives behind enemy lines committing acts of sabotage resistance and espionage Displaying phenomenal bravery SOE agents worked in a world with no rules doing whatever they could to help civilians in occupied countries assist local resistance fighters and make sure downed Allied airmen managed to evade capture Every act they committed came with a high risk of discovery and potentially execution Setting Europe Ablaze The SOE Sourcebook gives you all the tools you need to GM or play in an SOE campaign With no rigid military ranks or limiting rules to follow the SOE offers the perfect opportunity to play an RPG set in the Second World War where almost anything can happen This user friendly sourcebook is system neutral so you are free to use whatever rules you and your players prefer The Reform Advocate, 1928 The Rise and Fall of the Associated Negro Press Gerald Horne, 2017-08-04 For nearly fifty years the Chicago based Associated Negro Press ANP fought racism at home and grew into an international news organization abroad At its head stood founder Claude Barnett one of the most influential African Americans of his day and a gifted if unofficial diplomat who forged links with figures as diverse as Jawaharlal Nehru Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Nixon Gerald Horne weaves Barnett's fascinating life story through a groundbreaking history of the ANP including its deep dedication to Pan Africanism. An activist force in journalism, Barnett also helped send doctors and teachers to Africa; advised African governments gave priority to foreign newsgathering and saw the African American struggle in global terms. Yet Horne also confronts Barnett's contradictions. A member of the African American elite, Barnett's sympathies with black aspirations often clashed with his ethics and a powerful desire to join the upper echelons of business and government. In the end, Barnett's activist success undid his work. Horne traces the dramatic story of the ANP's collapse as the mainstream press retreating from Jim Crow finally covered black issues and hired African American journalists. Revelatory and entertaining, The Rise and Fall of the Associated Negro Press tells the story of a forgotten pioneer and the ambitious black institution he created.

Half Sisters of History Catherine Clinton, 1994-09-09 Long relegated to the margins of historical research, the history of women in the American South has rightfully gained prominence as a distinguished discipline. A comprehensive and much needed tribute to southern women's history, Half Sisters of History brings together the most important work in this field over the past twenty years. This collection of essays by pioneering scholars surveys the roots and development of southern women's history and examines the roles of white women and women of color across the boundaries of class and social status from the founding of the nation to the present. Authors including Anne Firor Scott, Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Jacquelyn Dowd Hall, and Nell Irwin Painter, among others, analyze women's participation in prewar slavery, their representation in popular fiction, and their involvement in social movements. In no way restricted to views of the plantation South, other essays examine the role of women during the American Revolution, the social status of Native American women, the involvement of Appalachian women in labor struggles, and the significance of women in the battle for civil rights. Because of their indelible impact on gender relations, issues of class, race, and sexuality figure centrally in these analyses. Half Sisters of History will be important not only to women's historians but also to southern historians and women's studies scholars. It will prove invaluable to anyone in search of a full understanding of the history of women in the South or the nation itself. Contributors: Catherine Clinton, Sara Evans, Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Jacquelyn Dowd Hall, Jacqueline Jones, Suzanne D. Lebesock, Nell Irwin Painter, Theda Perdue, Anne Firor Scott, Deborah Gray White.
