Reference and Information Services Richard E. Bopp,Linda C. Smith,2011-05-23 Reflecting the dramatic changes shaped by rapidly developing technologies over the past six years this new fourth edition of Reference and Information Services takes the introduction to reference sources and services significantly beyond the content of the first three editions In Part I Concepts and Processes chapters have been revised and updated to reflect new ideas and methods in the provision of reference service in an era when many users have access to the Web In Part II Information Sources and Their Use discussion of each source type has been updated to encompass key resources in print and on the Web where an increasing number of freely available sources join those purchased or licensed by libraries A number of new authors are contributors to this new edition bringing to their chapters their experience as teachers of reference and as practitioners in different types of libraries Discussions of services in Part I integrate digital reference as appropriate to each topic such as how to conduct a reference interview online using instant messaging Boxes interspersed in the text are used to present scenarios for discussion to highlight key concepts or to present excerpts from important documents Discussions of sources in Part II place more emphasis on designing effective search strategies using both print and digital resources The chapter on selection and evaluation of sources addresses the changing nature of reference collections and how to evaluate new types of sources Each chapter concludes with an updated list of additional readings to guide further study A new companion website will provide links to Web accessible readings and resources as well as additional scenarios for discussion and example search strategies to supplement those presented in the text

Competing for Legitimacy Salamah Magnuson, 2025-07-18 This book answers the question of why and how people form bonds with each other and with insurgent groups in fragile state contexts It develops an overarching framework depicting a political social contract presents the Grievance Driven Pathway as one way through which a reformist insurgency society contract can form and conducts a systematic comparison using two novel case studies not yet evaluated in insurgency literature the UFDR in the Central African Republic and the SLM A in Darfur Sudan The core claim is that perceptions of legitimacy across the four social contract elements lead to consent to form the intangible bond and foster societal and political trust Studying social contracts specifically the interaction between state society contracts and reformist insurgency society contracts facilitates a greater understanding of what constitutes legitimacy in the twenty first century and how perceptions of illegitimacy can lead to a breakdown of trust and the outbreak of violent conflict

World Atlas of Mangroves Mark Spalding, 2010-09-23 Published with ISME ITTO and project partners FAO UNESCO MAB UNEP WCMC and UNU INWEH This atlas provides the first truly global assessment of the state of the world s mangroves Written by a leading expert on mangroves with support from the top international researchers and conservation organizations this full colour atlas contains 60 full page maps hundreds of photographs and illustrations and a comprehensive country by country assessment of mangroves Mangroves are considered both ecologically and from a human perspective Initial chapters provide a global view with information on distribution biogeography productivity and wider ecology as well as on human uses economic values threats and approaches for mangrove management These themes are revisited throughout the regional chapters where the maps provide a spatial context or starting point for further exploration The book also presents a wealth of statistics on biodiversity habitat area loss and economic value which provide a unique record of mangroves against which future threats and changes can be evaluated Case studies written by regional experts provide insights into regional mangrove issues including primary and potential productivity biodiversity and information on present and traditional uses and values and sustainable management
