ROSA PARKS

Rosa Parks was an important figure in the Civil Rights Movement in the United States. She was born on February 4, 1913, in Tuskegee, Alabama. At a young age, Rosa learned about the importance of fairness and equality, which later shaped her life and beliefs.

In 1955, Rosa was working as a seamstress in Montgomery, Alabama. On December 1st of that year, she boarded a bus and sat in the designated "colored section" in the back. When the bus became full, the driver asked Rosa and several other African Americans to give up their seats to white passengers. Rosa refused to move, stating that she was tired and that the bus driver's demand was unjust. She was arrested for violating the segregation laws of the time.

Rosa's arrest sparked a boycott of the Montgomery bus system by African Americans, which lasted for over a year. This boycott was a turning point in the Civil Rights Movement and helped to end segregation on public buses. Rosa became a symbol of the fight against racial injustice, and her bravery and determination inspired others to join the cause.

In 1956, the Supreme Court declared segregation on public buses to be unconstitutional, and Rosa Parks was hailed as a hero. She continued to work for Civil Rights and equality until her death on October 24, 2005.
