Ross Memorial Library New S March 2013 Adult Fiction:

Young Adult Literature, Libraries, and Conservative Activism Loretta M. Gaffney, 2017-02-01 This incisive study analyzes young adult YA literature as a cultural phenomenon explaining why this explosion of books written for and marketed to teen readers has important consequences for how we understand reading in America As visible and volatile shorthand for competing views of teen reading YA literature has become a lightning rod for a variety of aesthetic pedagogical and popular literature controversies Noted scholar Loretta Gaffney not only examines how YA literature is defended and critiqued within the context of rapid cultural and technological changes but also highlights how struggles about teen reading matter to and matter in the future of librarianship and education The work bridges divides between literary criticism professional practices canon building literature appreciation genre classifications and recommendations standard histories and commentary It will be useful in YA literature course settings in Library and Information Science Education and English departments It will also be of interest to those who study right wing culture and movements in media studies cultural studies American studies sociology political science and history It is of additional interest to those who study print culture publishing and the book histories of teenagers and research on teen reading Finally it will offer those interested in teenagers literature libraries technology and politics a fresh way to look at book challenges and controversies over YA literature

A Lifetime of Fiction William Patrick Martin, 2014-04-10 A Lifetime of Fiction The 500 Most Recommended Reads for Ages 2 to 102 is the most authoritative set of fiction book recommendations in the United States because it is a composite of the most noteworthy book award lists best book publications and recommended reading lists from leading libraries schools and parenting organizations from across the country The book also includes a chapter on Twenty Seven Authors You Should Know featuring short biographies about some of the most influential writers of the last 150 years To the perennial question What books are worth reading A Lifetime of Fiction The 500 Most Recommended Reads for Ages 2 to 102 answers with best of the best booklists distilled from the most preeminent and trustworthy literary authorities

Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2018-03-01 Drawing on scholarly research findings this book presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools Reading is more important than it has ever been recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic's Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment maintenance and growth of pleasure reading collections both fiction and nonfiction and of readers advisory services The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities reference collection building provision of leisure materials readers advisory services storytelling and story time programs adult literacy programs and more This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e reading e writing and e publishing multiple literacies visual texts the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers

The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies stakeholders and the public at large LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest

The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover
