Royal Histories Joel Z. Garrod,2025-02-28 The aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis produced diverse solutions from nationalizing banks to increasing government spending and taxing capital However these proposals all faced significant obstacles in being realized Industry lobbying has since weakened reforms leading to ineffective policies raising the larger question of how to understand our current period of globalization where older strategies are ineffective but new solutions seem unattainable In Royal Histories Joel Z Garrod presents a historical analysis of the Royal Bank of Canada illustrating how Canadian capitalism and the Canadian banking industry have transformed as they have consolidated nationally and expanded abroad Emphasizing how national institutions and rules are increasingly becoming capabilities for transnational forms of capital accumulation the book draws on extensive primary and secondary sources to document the transformation of the assemblage of territory authority and rights that have supported the bank s activities over time Linking the bank s history to the policy regimes of the welfare state and neoliberalism Garrod contends that our present period of globalization is constituted by a novel organizing dynamic that severely limits the extent to which nation states can absorb capitalist crises or be a site of successful social reform Connecting the Canadian experience to the wider transformation of global capitalism Royal Histories illuminates the effects of globalization and the changing landscape of banking and finance      Annual Report for the Year ... John Crerar Library,1923      Research for What? Barbara E. Xiaolong Li, Chunhui Yuan, John Kent, 2024-02-26 Economics has always been a heated research topic and green development is rising and integrating with various fields for interdisciplinary studies. Initiated in 2017, the International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development (ICEMGD) is an annual conference aiming at bringing together researchers from the fields of economics, business management, public administration, and green development for the sharing of research methods and theoretical breakthroughs. The 7th International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development (ICEMGD 2023) was held on August 6, 2023. It was a hybrid conference including several on-site workshops and an online session. The workshops were held in London, Gala, Birmingham, Sydney, and Beijing. The proceedings consist of papers accepted by ICEMGD 2023, which are carefully selected and reviewed by professional reviewers from corresponding research fields, and the editing committee of the conference. The papers have a diverse range of topics situated at the intersecting fields of economic management, public administration, and green development. ICEMGD is working to provide a platform for international participants from fields like macro and microeconomics, international economics, finance, agricultural economics, health economics, business management, and marketing strategies, regional development studies, social governance, and sustainable development. This proceedings volume, together with the conference, looks forward to sparking inspiration and promoting collaborations. This book will be of interest to researchers, academics, professionals, and policymakers in the fields of economic management, public administration, and development studies.
