MacKenzie,2001-02-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 1945 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis      The British National Film Catalogue ,1983      The Humanist Movement in Modern Britain Callum G. Brown,David Nash,Charlie Lynch,2022-12-15 Humanists have been a major force in British life since the turn of the 20th century Here leading historians of religious non belief Callum Brown David Nash and Charlie Lynch examine how humanist organisations brought ethical reform and rationalism to the nation as it faced the moral issues of the modern world This book provides a long overdue account of this dynamic group Developing through the Ethical Union 1896 the Rationalist Press Association 1899 the British Humanist Association 1963 and Humanists UK 2017 Humanists sought to reduce religious privilege but increase humanitarian compassion and human rights After pioneering legislation on blasphemy laws dignity in dying and abortion rights they went on to help design new laws on gay marriage and sex and moral education Internationally they endeavoured to end war and world hunger And with Humanist marriages and celebration of life through Humanist funerals national ritual and culture have recently been transformed Based on extensive archival and oral history research this is the definitive history of Humanists as an ethical force in modern Britain      Army and Navy Journal ,1942      Screening the Fleet Jonathan Rayner,2025-02-04 In Screening the Fleet Prof Jonathan Rayner explores the representation of the modern Royal Navy on British television over a fifty year period from 1973 to 2023 Contextualising his subject with significant aspects of earlier naval representation in recruiting documentary and public information films from the 1940s to the 1960s Rayner then brings his focus forward to 1973 2023 The 1970s were a significant decade for naval representation on television and saw the broadcast of two definitive series the BBC's drama series Warship and the acclaimed documentary series Sailor These landmark series set the benchmark for naval representation in both realist and in fictional portrayals They also set precedents for audience perceptions and these have affected the production and the reception of the series on the Royal Navy that have followed Rayner's work investigates how advances in technology allow programme makers to use new techniques in the spheres of naval drama and documentary More recent series also need to balance the required conventions for any portrayal of the navy on television with the revelatory or iconoclastic approaches now expected by modern audiences In focussing on the changing portrayal of the Royal Navy on television however Rayner also surfaces how the Navy itself has evolved in the post World War II world The series analysed in Screening the Fleet also evidence the changing nature and increasing diversity of the naval community as a reflection of changing notions of Britishness Offering the first study of its type this volume highlights evolving and emerging trends in factual and fact based television programmes through their portrayal of a highly popular patriotic and persistent subject over a fifty year period It debates developments in television and documentary approaches using the representation of the Royal Navy and its changing position in perceptions of British identity Army, Navy, Air Force Journal & Register ,1942 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008

Lawrence Goldman,2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale
